AN ACT to provide for the registration of United Kingdom trade marks.

[31st December 1946]

Commencement.
1. This Act may be cited as the -
REGISTRATION OF UNITED KINGDOM TRADE MARKS ACT.

Short title.
2. In this Act -
“Court” means the High Court of Justice;
“register” means the register of trade marks required to be kept under this Act;
“Registrar” means the Registrar of the Court.

Interpretation.
3. Any person being the registered proprietor of a trade mark in the United Kingdom by virtue of an entry in the register of trade marks kept under the Trade Marks Act 1938 (United Kingdom) or any Act amending or substituted for that Act, or any person deriving title from the registered proprietor by assignment or other mode of transfer, may apply at any time during the existence of the registration in the United Kingdom to have the trade mark registered in the State in respect of some or all of the goods comprised in the United Kingdom registration.

Procedure on application.
4. An application for registration of a trade mark under this Act shall be made to the Registrar and accompanied by a certified representation of the trade mark and a certificate of the Comptroller General of the United Kingdom Patent Office (under his title of Registrar of Trade Marks) giving full particulars of the registration of the trade mark in the United Kingdom, and such other documents as may from time to time be prescribed.

Issue of certificate.
5. Upon the application being lodged, together with the documents mentioned in section 4 the Registrar shall enter the prescribed particulars in the register and shall issue a certificate of registration.
6. Subject to this Act, a registered proprietor shall have in the State such privileges and rights in the use of the trade mark in respect of the goods entered in the register as mutatis mutandis would be conferred on him by the law in force in the United Kingdom on 2nd November 1978.

7. The privileges and rights conferred by section 6 shall date from the date of registration in the United Kingdom and shall continue in force, subject to section 15, or so long as the registration in the United Kingdom remains in force in respect of the goods for which the trade mark is registered in the State; and no action for infringement of the trade mark shall be entertained in respect of any use of the trade mark prior to the date of issue of the certificate of registration in the State.

8. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to affect rights of action against any person for passing off goods as those of another person or any remedy in respect thereof.

9. The Court shall have power upon the application of any person who alleges that his interests have been prejudicially affected by the issue of a certificate of registration, to declare on any of the grounds mutatis mutandis on which the United Kingdom registration might be cancelled under the law in force in the United Kingdom on 2nd November 1978 that the exclusive privileges and rights have not been acquired.

10. Subject to the provisions of this Act, where a person becomes entitled by assignment, transmission or other operation of law to the privileges and rights conferred by a certificate of registration issued under this Act, the Registrar shall, on application being made in the prescribed manner, and on proof of title to his satisfaction, cause such person to be entered on the register as subsequent proprietor of the trade mark.

11. Any person entered in the United Kingdom Register of Trade Marks under section 28 of the Trade Marks Act 1938 (United Kingdom) as a registered user in respect of any goods of a trade mark in respect of which a certificate of registration under this Act is in force may apply to be registered in the State as a registered user of the mark in respect of some or all of such goods, subject to any conditions or restrictions entered in the United Kingdom register.
12. Upon the application being lodged, together with a certificate of the United Kingdom Registrar of Trade Marks giving full particulars of the entry in the United Kingdom register under the said section 28, the Registrar shall cause the applicant to be entered in the register of the State as a registered user of the trade mark, and on the entry the registered user shall be entitled in the State, subject to the aforesaid conditions and restrictions, to such privileges and rights in respect of the goods for which he is entered as mutatis mutandis would be conferred on him by the law in force in the United Kingdom on 2nd November 1978.

13. The Minister may make such Rules and do such things as he may think expedient, subject to this Act, for regulating procedure under this Act, and prescribing the fees to be paid in respect of proceedings under this Act, and generally for prescribing anything which by this Act is to be prescribed.

14. (1) There shall be kept in the Registrar's office a register in which shall be entered in the prescribed form all matters which are by this Act required to be registered.

(2) The register shall be open to inspection at all hours during which the Registrar's office is open.

15. If the registration in the United Kingdom of a trade mark registered under this Act is renewed, the registered proprietor may, within six months after the date of renewal in the United Kingdom, notify the Registrar, who shall then on sufficient evidence thereof and on payment of the prescribed fee, renew the registration in the register in the prescribed manner. If the registration in the register is not so renewed it shall be cancelled by the Registrar.

16. The Registrar may, on request in writing made by the registered proprietor, and on payment of the prescribed fee --

(a) cancel the registration of a trade mark or of a registered user thereunder either wholly or as regards any particular goods in respect of which the trade mark or the registered user is registered;

(b) correct any clerical error in or in connection with any application under this Act or in any matter which is entered in the register;
(c) enter in the register any change in the name, description or address of the person who is registered as proprietor or user of a trade mark.

17. (1) The Registration of United Kingdom Trade Marks Act 1930 is hereby repealed without prejudice to anything done or suffered thereunder, or any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued, or incurred thereunder or any rules made thereunder. Such rules shall be deemed to have been made under this Act and shall continue in force, so far as the same may not be rendered inapplicable by this Act, until other provision shall be made under or by virtue of this Act.

(2) The register kept under the provisions of the Registration of United Kingdom Trade Marks Act 1930 shall continue in force and shall be deemed to be the register to be kept under this Act.
