This Agreement shall not preclude the application by either Contracting Party of measures necessary for the maintenance of public order and morals, the fulfillment of its obligations with respect to the maintenance or restoration of international peace or security, or the protection of its own essential security interests.
2. This Agreement shall not preclude either Contracting Party from prescribing special formalities in connection with the establishment of investments, but such formalities shall not impair the substance of any of the rights set forth in this Agreement.

ARTICLE VIII

Consultation

The Contracting Parties agree to consult promptly, on the request of either, to resolve any dispute in connection with the Agreement or to discuss any matter relating to the application or interpretation of the Agreement.

ARTICLE IX

Settlement of Disputes Between an Investor of

One Contracting Party and the Other Contracting Party

1. Any legal disputes arising directly out of an investment between an investor of one Contracting Party and the other Contracting Party shall be settled amicably between the two parties concerned.

2. If this dispute has not been settled within a period of six months from the date at which it was raised in writing by one or other parties to the dispute, it shall be submitted, at the request and choice of either party, for settlement to:

(a) The competent court of the Contracting Party in the territory of which the investment has been made; or

(b) The International Center for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID) provided by the "Convention on Settlement of Investment Disputes Between States and Nationals of other States", done at Washington on March 18, 1965, if this convention is applicable; or

(c) An ad hoc court of arbitration laid down under the Arbitration Rules of Procedure of the United Nations Commission for International Trade Law (UNCITRAL),

Either party to the investment dispute who chooses one of the above mentioned ways of the settlement of dispute, cannot follow the two other ways.

3. The arbitration shall be based on:

(a) the provisions of this Agreement;

(b) the national laws and regulations of the Contracting Party in whose territory the investment was made, including the rules relative to conflicts of law.

4. The arbitration awards shall be final and binding for all Contracting Parties in dispute. Each Contracting Party commits itself to execute the award according to its national law.

5. The arbitral tribunal shall interpret its award at the request of either Party. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, the venue of arbitration is the Hague, the Netherlands.

6. The Contracting Party which is a party to the dispute shall, at no time whatsoever during the procedures involving investment disputes, assert as a defence, its immunity or the fact that the investor has received compensation under an insurance contract covering the whole or part of the incurred damage or loss.

ARTICLE X

Settlement of Disputes Between The Contracting Parties

1. The Contracting Parties shall seek in good faith and a spirit of cooperation a rapid and equitable solution to any dispute between them concerning the application and interpretation of this Agreement. In this regard, The Contracting Parties agree to engage in direct and meaningful negotiations to arrive at such solutions. If the Contracting Parties cannot reach an agreement within six months after the beginning of the dispute between themselves through the foregoing procedure, the dispute may be submitted, upon the request of either Contracting Party, to an arbitral tribunal of three members.

2. Within two months of receipt of a request, each Contracting Party shall appoint an arbitrator. The two arbitrators shall select a third arbitrator as Chairman, who is a national of a third State who has diplomatic relations with both of the Contracting Parties. In the event either Contracting Party fails to appoint an arbitrator within the specified time, the other Contracting Party may request the President of the International Court of Justice to make the appointment.

3. If both arbitrators cannot reach an agreement about the choice of the Chairman within two months after their appointment, the Chairman shall be appointed upon the request of either Contracting Party by the President of the International Court of Justice.

4. If the President of the International Court of Justice is prevented from carrying out the said function or if he is a national of either Contracting Party, the appointment shall be made by the Vice- President, and if the Vice-President is prevented from carrying out the said function or if he is a national of either Contracting Party, the appointment shall be made by the most senior member of the Court who is not a national of either Contracting Party.

5. The arbitral tribunal shall, have one month from the date of the selection of the Chairman, to agree upon rules of procedure consistent with the other provisions of this Agreement. If within one month the arbitral tribunal has not fixed its rules of procedure, the rules of UNCITRAL shall be applicable.

6. Unless otherwise agreed, all submissions shall be made and all hearings shall be completed within eight months of the date of selection of the third arbitrator, and the tribunal shall render its decision within two months after the date of the final submissions or the date of the closing of the hearings, whichever is latter. The arbitral tribunal shall reach its decisions, which shall be final and binding, by a majority of votes.

7. The tribunal with respect to the dispute issue shall apply the rules of this Agreement. The venue of arbitration shall be the Hague, the Netherlands.

8. Expenses incurred by the Chairman, the other arbitrators, and other costs of the proceedings shall be paid for equally by the Contracting Parties. The tribunal may, however, at its discretion, decide that a higher proportion of the costs be paid by one of the Contracting Parties.

9. A dispute shall not be submitted to an international arbitration court under the provisions of this Article, if the same dispute has been brought before another international arbitration court under the provisions of Article IX and is still before the court. This will not impair the engagement in direct and meaningful negotiations between both Contracting Parties.

ARTICLE XI

Entering into Force

1. This Agreement shall enter into force on the date on which the exchange of instruments of ratification has been completed. It shall remain in force for a period of ten years and shall continue in force for an unlimited period unless terminated in accordance with paragraph 2 of this Article. It shall apply to investments existing at the time of entry into force as well as to investments made or acquired thereafter.

2. Either Contracting Party may, by giving one year's written notice to the other Contracting Party, terminate this Agreement at the end of the initial ten year period or at any time thereafter.

3. This Agreement may be amended by written agreements between the Contracting Parties. Any amendment shall enter into force when each Contracting Party has notified the other that it has completed all internal requirements for entry into force of such amendments.

4. With respect to investments made or acquired prior to the date of termination of this Agreement and to which this Agreement otherwise applies, the provisions of all of the other Articles of this Agreement shall thereafter continue to be effective for a further period of ten years from such date of termination.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the respective plenipotentiaries have signed this Agreement.
