

THE EXPERIENCE OF THE REPUBLIC OF MOLDOVA IN BUILDING RESPECT FOR INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY,

IN PARTICULAR THROUGH EDUCATION CAMPAIGNS DESIGNED FOR PUBLIC AUTHORITIES AND YOUNG PEOPLE

Natalia Mogol Deputy Head, Trademarks and Industrial Designs Department Deputy Head, Observatory on Enforcement of IP Rights

EVOLUTION OF THE INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LEGISLATIVE FRAMEWORK

Adoption of special laws, accession to the WTO

1991-1992 establishment of the system, appointment of specialized bodies

adoption of a common Regulation in IP field, accession to the main international treaties

1993-1995

2002-2007

Harmonisation of the national legislation with European legislation 2007- up to present Entry into force of the harmonized laws, continuous improvement of the IP system

National Strategy on Intellectual Property 2012-2020 (main goals)

- the creation of balanced IP legislation;
- the strengthening of the institutional framework for IP; and
- education and public awareness raising.

AGEPI advanced IP courses

- 168 hours
- annually
- 30 experts.

Aim: increasing IP professional skills.

The curriculum of training courses included nine disciplines in the field of IP protection (Introduction to Intellectual Property; Industrial Property Law; Trademarks; Geographical Indications; Appellations of Origin; Traditional Specialties Guaranteed; Industrial Designs; Inventions; Plant Varieties; Copyright and Related Rights, Economy and Evaluation of Intellectual Property) with a total of 168 hours.

AGEPI trainings

- 1-2 days
- 2-3 per year (possible more on demand)
- designed for Customs, Police, Prosecutor
 Officers
- rights holders involved (REACT, BSA, INTA)

AGEPI seminars

For the private sector

For the judiciary

Up to 40 seminars per year Representatives of the private sector About 800 particiapants per year

- 2 times per year
- Tematic lessons
- Case studies

Campaign on Information and Training of Librarians (2014)

- 16 libraries
- 661 librarians trained
- 14 cooperation agreements signed
- about 8,600 materials (books, brochures, leaflets) disseminated

Contests and competitions

- "Best Innovative Pupil"
- "Best Rationalizer of the Year" and "Best Young Rationalizer of the Year"
- "Today a Student, Tomorrow an Entrepreneur"
- "Most Active Patent Attorney of the Year"
- "Trademark of the Year"

Raising IP awareness among children

- Early 2015 Project of the Ministry of Education to change the content of textbooks.
- AGEPI working group analyzed 36 textbooks and elaborated almost 300 recommendations to improve the content, especially with useful IP information and data.
- Main goal: introduction with the IP concepts, acknowledgement of the IP value, learning to respect IP.

Main achievements:

- specialized IPR enforcement units within the relevant public authorities
- Intellectual property division (Custom Service)
- Protection of Intellectual Property Division (Police)
- Computer Crime Investigation Division (General Prosecutor's Office)
- good interinstitutional relationships
- cooperation with rights holders
- more and more involved young people

The role of the national IP Offices in creating an environment in which IP is respected

For any information do not hesitate to contact us:

Mrs. Natalia Mogol

Deputy Head, Trademarks and Industrial Designs Department AGEPI Deputy Head, Observatory on Enforcement of IP Rights

Email: Natalia.Mogol@agepi.gov.md

Tel.: (373) 22 400 541

www.stoppirateria.md

