

THE UNIFORM DOMAIN NAME DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCEDURE

(based on the UDRP Rules approved on October 30, 2009 and the WIPO Supplemental Rules in effect as of December 14, 2009)

+20

+5 to +15

+14

+3

+10

Response due within 20 calendar days of formal commencement of administrative proceeding

Default notification sent if Response not filed by deadline; Panel has discretion whether to consider late-filed Response

Center acknowledges receipt or sends default notification

Regardless of whether Respondent defaults or not, Center proceeds to appoint Administrative Panel of 1 or 3 members

If both Complainant and Respondent designate a single Panelist, Center will make appointment from its published list. If either the Complainant or Respondent designates a 3-member Panel, the Center will appoint a 3-person Administrative Panel. In so doing, center will attempt to appoint one of the three candidates nominated by the Complainant and one of the three appointed by the Respondent. The Presiding Panelist in a 3-person Panel is appointed taking into consideration the parties' preferences.

Panel is required to forward its decision to the Center within 14 days of its appointment

Center notifies decision to parties, ICANN and concerned registrar(s) within 3 days after receipt

Registrar notifies parties, ICANN and Center of date a decision in favor of the Complainant will be implemented unless an Paragraph 4(k) filing is made by the Respondent

Pursuant to Policy, Paragraph 4(k), the registrar is required to implement a decision in favor of the Complainant after 10 business days of receipt, unless it receives from the Respondent official documentation that it has commenced a lawsuit against the Complainant in a Mutual Jurisdiction. Registrar will take no action until it receives evidence satisfactory to the registrar that the matter has been resolved, the lawsuit dismissed or withdrawn or a copy of an order from the court dismissing the lawsuit or ordering that the Respondent has no right to use the domain name

Decision implemented by registrar