

Timothy Jackson
Partner
Baldwins
New Zealand

- Fellow of the New Zealand Institute of Patent Attorneys
- Member of the New Zealand Law Society
- Barrister and Solicitor of the High Court of New Zealand

Education

- BSc, MSc (Hons) Organic Chemistry, Massey University, New Zealand
- LLB, Victoria University of Wellington
Law School

Experience

Tim's experience includes hearings in inter partes and ex partes matters before the New Zealand Commissioner of Patents as well as providing litigation support for actions before the High Court of New Zealand. Tim has also appeared as a Junior Counsel before the New Zealand Supreme Court and the Privy Council. His experience also includes prosecution of patent applications, oppositions, and the giving of infringement and validity advice. Tim gives general advice to local New Zealand businesses in relation to registered design protection and trade mark matters, as well as copyright, passing off and the Fair Trading Act. He also advises in the area of agro-chemical product registration in New Zealand including the impact that environmental legislation has on product release.

Areas of Expertise

Particular experience in

- Organic Chemistry
- Agro-chemicals and Pharmaceuticals
- Dairy Technology
- Timber Treatment
- Diabetes Research
- Ceramics