

Philippe CADRE

Education

Chemistry technological university diploma (distinction) and electro-physical engineer

Previous professional achievement

Philippe Cadre joined INPI in 1981 as an Examiner specialising in Integrated Circuits.

Promoted to senior Examiner in 1991, he was also in charge of International Patent Classification under the supervision of the World Intellectual Property Organisation (WIPO) in Geneva.

In charge of technical cooperation with Africa, he was also consultant for the WIPO organisation.

He was promoted to superintending Examiner in 1995. As head of the Patent Examination Division Philippe Cadre supported the decision-making process as regard future economic and legal policy initiatives of the French government in the area of the patentability of software innovations, respectively of computer programmes

Current activities

Currently, Deputy Director of Patent Directorate of the French National Institute of Industrial Property (INPI), Philippe Cadre manage some project co-financed within the framework programme of the European Community.