

SINGAPORE

The following comment was received through a communication from the Intellectual Property Office of Singapore

Singapore is in the process of discussion and collating relevant comments from our local agencies and thus make no specific comments at this time; however, we wish to reserve our right to comment/intervene (if necessary) on these documents or the redrafted version prior to/at the June session of IGC.