USE OF THE CREATIVE COMMONS IGO LICENSES Under the WIPO Open Access Policy

The Creative Commons (CC) IGO Licenses enable WIPO to indicate to the users of our publications - in a flexible and simple manner - under what conditions our online publications may be used.

The CC IGO Licenses suite consists of the following six licenses, each containing different conditions:

1. Creative Commons / Attribution 3.0 IGO

- Attribution (CC BY IGO): the user is allowed to reproduce, distribute, adapt, translate and publicly perform WIPO publications, even for commercial use, with the condition that WIPO is credited as being the original source.

2. Creative Commons / Attribution-ShareAlike 3.0 IGO

- Attribution Share Alike (CC BY-SA IGO): the user is allowed to reproduce, distribute, adapt, translate and publicly perform WIPO publications, even for commercial use, with the condition that WIPO is credited as being the original source and that the re-distribution of the publication is made under the same conditions as the IGO License.

3. Creative Commons / Attribution-NonCommercial 3.0 IGO

- Attribution Non-Commercial (CC BY-NC IGO): the user is allowed to reproduce, distribute, adapt, translate and publicly perform WIPO publications, by crediting WIPO as the original source, but without making any commercial use. For any commercial use, the user is required to ask for the express written permission of WIPO.

4. Creative Commons / Attribution-NoDerivs 3.0 IGO

- Attribution No Derivatives (CC BY-ND IGO): the user is allowed to reproduce, distribute and publicly perform WIPO publications, even for commercial use, by crediting WIPO as the original source, but without making any modification or translation. For any modification or translation, the user is required to ask for the express written permission of WIPO.

5. Creative Commons / Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike 3.0 IGO

- Attribution Non-Commercial Share Alike (CC BY-NC-SA IGO): the user is allowed to reproduce, distribute, adapt, translate and publicly perform WIPO publications, with the condition that WIPO is credited as being the original source and that the re-distribution of the publication is made under the same conditions as the IGO License. However, the user is required to ask for the express permission of WIPO to use the publication for commercial purposes.

6. Creative Commons / Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivs 3.0 IGO

- Attribution Non-Commercial No Derivatives (CC BY-NC-ND IGO): this is the most restrictive license. The user is allowed to reproduce, distribute and publicly perform WIPO publications, by crediting WIPO as the original source, but without making any commercial use or any adaptation and translation. For any modification or commercial use, the user is required to ask for the express written permission of WIPO.
