Availability of Certain Notifications and Statements Received from Offices of Designated Contracting Parties

1. As from January 1, 2009, notifications of provisional refusal, of confirmation or withdrawal of a provisional refusal, and of invalidation, as well as statements of grant of protection, received by the International Bureau since January 1, 2005, and that have led to a corresponding recording in the International Register, are made available in ROMARIN in PDF format under the relevant heading and INID code.
2. This enhancement of the ROMARIN database notably provides users with full information concerning the goods and services affected by a partial provisional refusal. However, any information or statement so made available will be displayed as received by the International Bureau, and will notably be available only in the language in which they were issued.
