

Hague Agreement Concerning the International Registration of Industrial Designs

Change in the amounts of the individual designation fee: Canada

1. The Government of Canada has notified the Director General of the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) of a declaration modifying the amounts of the individual designation fee payable in connection with an international application in which Canada is designated, and in connection with the renewal of an international registration designating Canada, under Article 7(2) of the Geneva Act (1999) of the Hague Agreement Concerning the International Registration of Industrial Designs (the “Geneva Act”).

2. In accordance with Rule 28(2)(b) of the Regulations Under the Geneva Act (1999) of the Hague Agreement, the Director General of WIPO has established, after consultation with the Canadian Intellectual Property Office (CIPO), the following new amounts, in Swiss francs, of the said individual designation fee:

Individual Designation Fee		Current Amounts (in Swiss francs)	New Amounts (in Swiss francs)
International Application	– for each design	370	350
First renewal	– for each design	324	306
Subsequent renewals	– for each design	0	0

3. In accordance with Article 30(1)(ii) of the Geneva Act, and as per the declaration received, these new amounts will take effect on January 1, 2026.
