

According to Article 25, paragraph (3) of the Convention, this declaration will take effect on May 1, 1966.

The present notification is made in application of Article 26, paragraph (3), of the above-mentioned Convention.

ANNEX

Letter from the British Embassy at Berne, of February 17, 1966

Monsieur le Conseiller fédéral,

On instructions from Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, I have the honour to notify Your Excellency, in accordance with Article 26 (1) of the International Convention for the Protection of Literary and Artistic Works as last revised at Brussels on the 26th of June, 1948, to which revised Convention the United Kingdom acceded on the 15th of November, 1957, of the application of the said Convention to the territory of Grenada.

I request that the 1st of May, 1966, be considered the effective date for the application of the revised Convention to Grenada if the notification by the Government of the Swiss Confederation provided for in Article 25 (3) of the Convention is made earlier than the 1st of April.

I should be grateful if Your Excellency will confirm in due course the date of application in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (3) of Article 25 of the Convention.

I have the honour to be, with the highest respect, Monsieur le Conseiller fédéral, your obedient Servant,

(R. S. ISAACSON)

II

Application to the Cayman Islands of the Berne Convention for the Protection of Literary and Artistic Works, last revised at Brussels on June 26, 1948 (with effect from June 4, 1966)

Notification of the Swiss Government to the Governments of Unionist Countries

Carrying out the instructions issued by the Federal Political Department on April 1, 1966, the Embassy of Switzerland has the honour to inform the Ministry of Foreign Affairs as follows:

By a letter of March 10, 1966, Her Britannic Majesty's Embassy in Switzerland has notified the Federal Political Department of the application of the Berne Convention for the Protection of Literary and Artistic Works of September 9, 1886, last revised at Brussels on June 26, 1948, to the Cayman Islands. This declaration refers to Article 26, paragraph (1), of the said Convention.

According to Article 25, paragraph (3) of the Convention, and upon the express request of the Government of the United Kingdom, this declaration will take effect on June 4, 1966.

The present notification is made in application of Article 26, paragraph (3), of the above-mentioned Convention.

ANNEX

Letter from the British Embassy at Berne, of March 10, 1966

Monsieur le Conseiller fédéral,

On instructions from Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, I have the honour to notify you, in accordance with Article 26 (1) of the International Convention for the Protection of Literary and Artistic Works as last revised at Brussels on 26th of June, 1948, to which revised Convention the United Kingdom acceded on 15th of November, 1957, of the application of the said Convention to the territory of the Cayman Islands.

I request that the date of 4th of June, 1966, be considered the effective date for the application of the revised Convention to the Cayman Islands if the notification by the Government of the Swiss Confederation provided for in Article 25 (3) of the Convention is made earlier than 4th of May.

I should be grateful if Your Excellency would confirm in due course the date of application in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (3) of Article 25 of the Convention.

I have the honour to be, with the highest respect, Monsieur le Conseiller fédéral, your obedient Servant,

(R. S. ISAACSON)