An Act to make provision in place of section 15 of the Copyright Act 1911 relating to the deposit of printed and similar publications, including on and off line publications; to make provision about the use and preservation of material deposited; and for connected purposes. [30th October 2003]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Duty to deposit

1 Deposit of publications

(1) A person who publishes in the United Kingdom a work to which this Act applies must at his own expense deliver a copy of it to an address specified (generally or in a particular case) by any deposit library entitled to delivery under this section.

(2) If a deposit library other than the authority controlling the Library of Trinity College, Dublin has not specified an address, the copy is to be delivered to the library.

(3) In the case of a work published in print, this Act applies to—
   (a) a book (including a pamphlet, magazine or newspaper),
   (b) a sheet of letterpress or music,
   (c) a map, plan, chart or table, and
   (d) a part of any such work;
   but that is subject to any prescribed exception.

(4) In the case of a work published in a medium other than print, this Act applies to a work of a prescribed description.

(5) A prescribed description may not include works consisting only of—
Legal Deposit Libraries Act 2003 (c. 28)

(a) a sound recording or film or both, or
(b) such material and other material which is merely incidental to it.

(6) Subject to section 6(2)(h), the obligation under subsection (1) is to deliver a copy of the work in the medium in which it is published.

(7) In this section, “address” means an address in the United Kingdom or an electronic address.

2 New and alternative editions

(1) This Act does not apply to a work which is substantially the same as one already published in the same medium in the United Kingdom.

(2) Where substantially the same work is published in the United Kingdom in more than one medium—
   (a) section 1(1) applies only in relation to its publication in one of those media, and
   (b) that medium is to be determined in accordance with regulations made by the Secretary of State.

(3) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision as to circumstances in which works are or are not to be regarded for the purposes of this section as substantially the same.

3 Enforcement

(1) This section applies where a person (in this section, “the publisher”) who is required by or under this Act to deliver anything to an address specified by a deposit library, or to a deposit library, has failed to comply with that obligation.

(2) The library may, in accordance with rules of court, apply to the county court (or, in Scotland, to the sheriff) for an order requiring the publisher to comply with the obligation.

(3) If on an application under subsection (2) it appears that—
   (a) the publisher is unable to comply with the obligation, or
   (b) for any other reason, it is not appropriate to make an order under that subsection, the court or sheriff may instead make an order requiring the publisher to pay to the library an amount which is not more than the cost of making good the failure to comply.

Printed publications

4 Printed publications: the British Library

(1) The British Library Board is entitled to delivery under section 1 of a copy of every work published in print.

(2) The copy must be delivered within one month beginning with the day of publication.

(3) The copy is to be of the same quality as the best copies which, at the time of delivery, have been produced for publication in the United Kingdom.
(4) The Board must give a receipt in writing (whether sent by electronic or other means).

5 Printed publications: other libraries

(1) Each deposit library other than the British Library Board is entitled to delivery under section 1 of a copy of any work published in print which it requests.

(2) A request under this section must be in writing (whether sent by electronic or other means).

(3) A request—
   (a) may be made before publication, and
   (b) in particular, may relate to all future numbers or parts of an encyclopaedia, newspaper, magazine or other work.

(4) No request may be made after the end of 12 months beginning with the day of publication.

(5) The copy must be delivered within one month beginning with—
   (a) the day of publication, or
   (b) if later, the day on which the request is received.

(6) The copy is to be of the same quality as the largest number of copies which, at the time of delivery, have been produced for publication in the United Kingdom.

Non-print publications

6 Regulations: deposit of non-print publications

(1) The Secretary of State may make regulations supplementing sections 1 and 2 as they apply to works published in media other than print.

   (c) require delivery within a time prescribed by reference to publication or another event;
   (d) permit or require delivery by electronic means;
   (e) where a work is produced for publication in copies of differing quality, specify the quality of copies to be delivered;
   (f) where a work is published or made available to the public in different formats, provide for the format in which any copy is to be delivered to be determined in accordance with requirements specified (generally or in a particular case) by the deposit libraries or any of them;

(3) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision permitting relevant persons to do any of the activities listed in subsection (2) in relation to relevant material, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.

(4) Regulations under this section may in particular make provision about—
   (a) the purposes for which relevant material may be used or copied;
   (b) the time at which or the circumstances in which readers may first use relevant material;
   (c) the description of readers who may use relevant material;
   (d) the limitations on the number of readers who may use relevant material at any one time (whether by limiting the number of terminals in a deposit library from which readers may at any one time access an electronic publication or otherwise).

       may be exercised in relation to those cases subject to specified exceptions, or in relation to a particular case or class of cases.

       affected.

(3) Regulations under section 1(4) or 6 may not be made so as to apply to works published before the regulations are made.

    State considers that the costs likely to be incurred as a result of the regulations by persons who publish works to which the regulations relate are not disproportionate to the benefit to the public arising from the delivery of copies of such works.

(5) Regulations under section 1(4), 2, 6, 7 or 10(5) may not be made unless the Secretary of State considers that the regulations do not unreasonably prejudice the interests of persons who publish works to which the regulations relate.

(6) Any power to make regulations under this Act is exercisable by statutory instrument, and no such regulations may be made unless a draft of the instrument containing them has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

but this does not apply where the entitlement is to delivery of copies of electronic publications and that authority is provided with a means of accessing those publications electronically.

(5) Where subsection (4) does not apply, regulations under this Act that would affect the authority controlling the National Library of Wales may not be made unless the Secretary of State has consulted the National Assembly for Wales.

13 Regulations: Trinity College, Dublin

(1) Regulations under this Act which confer an entitlement on the authority controlling the Library of Trinity College, Dublin may not be made unless the Secretary of State is satisfied, in relation to relevant material delivered pursuant to such an entitlement—
   (a) that as regards the restriction by section 7 (having regard to any regulations made under that section) of activities in relation to relevant material, the restriction of those activities under the laws of Ireland is not substantially less,
   (b) that as regards the protection under the laws of any part of the United Kingdom of copyright, publication right, database right and patents in relation to relevant material, the protection under the laws of Ireland of corresponding rights is not substantially less, and
