Code
Of Administrative Offences
Of The Russian Federation
No. 195-Fz Of December 30, 2001

Adopted by the State Duma on December 20, 2001
Endorsed by the Council of Federation on December 26, 2001

Section I. General Provisions

Chapter 1. Aims and Principles of the Legislation on Administrative Offences

Article 1.1. The Legislation on Administrative Offences

1. The legislation on administrative offences consists of this Code and the laws on administrative offences of subjects of the Russian Federation adopted in compliance with it.

2. This Code is based on the Constitution of the Russian Federation, generally recognized principles and norms of international law and international treaties of the Russian Federation. Where an international treaty of the Russian Federation establishes rules other than those provided for by the legislation on administrative offences, the rules of the international treaty shall apply.

Article 1.2. Aims of the Legislation on Administrative Offences

The aims of the legislation on administrative offences shall be the protection of the person, of human and civil rights and freedoms, of citizens’ health, of the sanitary-and-epidemiological well-being of the population, the defence of public morals, protection of the environment, of the established procedure for exercising state powers, of public order and security, of property, the protection of the lawful interests of natural persons and legal entities, society and the state from administrative offences, as well as the prevention of administrative offences.

Article 1.3. Scope of Jurisdiction of the Legislation on Administrative Offences of the Russian Federation
1. Within the jurisdiction of the legislation on administrative offences of the Russian Federation there shall be the establishment:
   1) of general provisions and principles of the legislation on administrative offences;
   2) of a list of administrative penalties and rules of imposition thereof;
   3) of administrative responsibility regarding matters of federal importance, including administrative responsibility for violating the rules and norms provided for by federal laws and other normative legal acts of the Russian Federation;
   4) of the order of proceedings in respect of cases concerning administrative offences, including the establishment of measures ensuring proceedings in cases concerning administrative offences;
   5) of the procedure for enforcement of decisions to impose administrative penalties.
2. In compliance with the legislation on the judicial system, this Code shall determine the court jurisdiction of cases concerning administrative offences.
3. In compliance with the legislation on the protection of juvenile rights, this Code shall determine the jurisdiction in cases concerning administrative offences in respect of committees in cases involving minors and protection of their rights.
4. In conformity with the established structure of federal executive bodies, this Code shall determine the jurisdiction in cases concerning administrative offences, provided for by this Code, in respect of federal executive bodies.
5. In compliance with the tasks and functions set for and imposed upon the state power bodies of constituent entities of the Russian Federation by federal laws, this Code shall define jurisdiction in cases on administrative offences stipulated by this Code with respect to executive power bodies of constituent entities of the Russian Federation.

Article 1.3.1. The Scope of Authority of Constituent Entities of the Russian Federation, as Regards the Legislation of Administrative Offences
1. The scope of authority of constituent entities of the Russian Federation, as regards the legislation on administrative offences, shall comprise the following:
   1) establishing by the laws of constituent entities of the Russian Federation on administrative offences the administrative liability for breaching the laws and other regulatory legal acts of constituent entities of the Russian Federation and regulatory legal acts of local authorities;
   2) arranging proceedings in respect of cases on administrative offences provided for by the laws of constituent entities of the Russian Federation;
   3) defining jurisdiction in respect of cases of the administrative offences provided for by laws of constituent entities of the Russian Federation in compliance with Part 2 of Article 22.1 of this Code;
   4) establishing commissions for juveniles' affairs and for protection of their rights;
   5) establishing administrative commissions and other collective bodies for the purpose of bringing to administrative liability provided for by the laws of constituent entities of the Russian Federation;
   6) compiling a list of officials authorized to draw up records of the administrative offences provided for by the laws of constituent entities of the Russian Federation;
   7) regulation by the laws of constituent entities of the Russian Federation of other matters in compliance with this Code.
2. Laws of constituent entities of the Russian Federation may vest local authorities with some powers of a constituent entity of the Russian Federation as to the settlement of the matters cited in Items 4-6 of Part 1 of this Article, with the material and financial assets necessary for their exercise to be transferred thereto. If a local self-government body is vested with the cited powers, its officials shall be entitled to draw up records of the administrative offences provided for by the laws of the constituent entity of the Russian Federation.

3. Where it is provided for by the laws of a constituent entity of the Russian Federation, officials of local self-government bodies shall be entitled to draw up records of the administrative offences provided for by this Code or by the laws of constituent entities of the Russian Federation, when exercising by local authorities the powers involving the exercise of control (supervision) which have been delegated by the Russian Federation or by constituent entities of the Russian Federation, as well as when exercising municipal control.

4. The executive power bodies of constituent entities of the Russian Federation shall be empowered within the scope of authority thereof established by Chapter 23 of this Code to try cases on the administrative offences provided for by this Code.

5. Officials of executive power bodies of constituent entities of the Russian Federation shall be empowered within the scope of authority of an appropriate executive power body of a constituent entity of the Russian Federation to draw up records of the administrative offences provided for by this Code as it is cited in Article 28.3 of this Code.

Article 1.4. Principle of Equality before Law

1. Persons who have committed administrative offences shall be equal before the law. Natural persons shall be administratively liable, regardless of their sex, race, nationality, language, origin, property or official status, residence, attitude to religion, opinions, participation in social associations, or other circumstances. Legal entities shall be administratively liable, regardless of location, organisational-and-legal form and subordination or other circumstances.

2. Any special conditions for taking measures aimed at ensuring proceedings in a case concerning an administrative offence or of holding administratively responsible officials exercising certain state functions (deputies, judges, prosecutors and other persons) shall be established by the Constitution of the Russian Federation and by federal laws.

Article 1.5. Presumption of Innocence

1. A person shall be administratively liable only for those administrative offences, in respect of which his guilt has been established.

2. A person who is on trial for an administrative offence shall be regarded innocent until his guilt is proved in the procedure established by this Code and determined by a lawful decision of the judge, or of the body, or of the official who has considered his case.

3. A person held administratively responsible is not obliged to prove his innocence, except as provided for by the note to this Article.

4. Irremovable doubts in respect of the guilt of a person held administratively responsible shall be interpreted in favour of this person.

Federal Law No. 69-FZ of April 21, 2011 amended the Note to Article 1.5 of this Code. The amendments shall enter into force on January 1, 2012

Note. The provision of Part 3 of this article shall not extend to the administrative offences stipulated by Chapter 12 of this Code, and to the administrative offences concerning land improvement provided for by laws of constituent entities of the Russian Federation which are made with the use of transport vehicles, if these administrative offences are recorded by special automatically operated technical devices which can perform the functions of photography, cinematographic recording and video recording or by photographic, cinematographic and video recording equipment.

Article 1.6. Ensuring Lawfulness, While Taking Coercive Measures in Connection with an Administrative Offence
1. A person held administratively responsible may not be subject to an administrative penalty and to measures for ensuring proceedings in respect of a case concerning an administrative offence otherwise than for the reasons and in the procedure established by law.

2. An administrative penalty shall be imposed and measures for ensuring the proceedings in respect of a case concerning an administrative offence shall be taken by the authorized body or official within the scope of jurisdiction of said body or official in compliance with law.

3. When taking administrative coercive measures, decisions or actions (failure to act) abasing human dignity shall not be allowed.

Article 1.7. Operation of the Legislation on Administrative Offences in Time

1. A person who has committed an administrative offence shall be liable under the law effective at the time of committing the administrative offence.

2. Any law mitigating or terminating administrative responsibility for an administrative offence, or improving the position of a person who has committed an administrative offence shall be retroactive, that is, it shall also extend to persons who committed administrative offences prior to the entry of such law into force and who have not been punished pursuant to a decision concerning the imposition of an administrative penalty. A law establishing or aggravating administrative responsibility for an administrative offence or worsening the position of the person shall not be retroactive.

3. Proceedings in respect of a case concerning an administrative offence shall be carried out under the law effective at the time of conducting the proceedings in respect of said case.

Article 1.8. Operation of the Legislation on Administrative Offences in Territory

1. A person who has committed an administrative offence in the territory of the Russian Federation shall be held administratively liable in compliance with this Code or the law of a constituent entity of the Russian Federation on administrative offences, except for the cases envisaged by an international treaty of the Russian Federation.

2. A person who have committed an administrative offence outside the Russian Federation shall be held administratively liable under this Code where it is provided for by an international treaty made by the Russian Federation.

Chapter 2. Administrative Offence and Administrative Responsibility

Article 2.1. Administrative Offence

1. A wrongful, guilty action (omission) of a natural person or legal entity which is administratively punishable under this Code or the laws on administrative offences of subjects of the Russian Federation shall be regarded as an administrative offence.

2. A legal entity shall be found guilty of an administrative offence, if it is established that it had the opportunity to observe rules and norms whose violation is administratively punishable under this Code or under the laws of a subject of the Russian Federation, but it has not taken all the measures that were in its power in order to follow to them.

3. Imposition of an administrative penalty on a legal entity shall not relieve the guilty natural person of administrative responsibility for the given offence, and holding a natural person to administrative or criminal responsibility shall not relieve the legal entity of administrative responsibility for the given offence.
Article 2.2. Types of Guilt

1. An administrative offence shall be deemed willful, when the person who has committed it realized the wrongful nature of his action (omission), could foresee the harmful consequences thereof and wished these consequences, or deliberately tolerated them, or treated them indifferently.

2. An administrative offence shall be deemed as committed through negligence, when a person who has committed it could foresee the harmful consequences of his action (omission) but self-conceitedly hoped to prevent such consequences, or did not foresee the appearance of such consequences, though he should have to or could have foreseen them.

Article 2.3. Age at which Person Becomes Administrative Liable

1. A person who has attained the age of sixteen years old by the moment of committing an administrative offence shall be administratively liable.

2. Subject to the specific circumstances of a case and the data about the person who has committed an administrative offence at an age from sixteen to eighteen years old, said person may be relieved of administrative responsibility for it by a committee for cases involving minors and for protection of their rights, that shall take measures to safeguard him, as provided for by the legislation on the protection of juvenile rights.

Article 2.4. Administrative Responsibility of Officials

An official, who has committed an administrative offence in connection with his failure to discharge his official duties or improper discharge of his official duties, shall be administratively liable.

Note. An official in this Code means a person who exercises the functions of a public officer on a constant or temporary basis, or is vested with special authority, that is, a person who is vested, in the procedure established by law, with managerial powers in respect of persons who are not officially subordinated to him, as well as a person exercising organisational-and-managerial or administrative-and-economic functions in state bodies, bodies of local self-government, governmental and municipal organisations, in the Armed Forces of the Russian Federation, or in other troops and military regiments of the Russian Federation. Heads and other employees of different organisations, who have committed administrative offences in connection with the exercise of administrative-and-managerial or administrative-and-economic functions, as well as members of the board of directors (supervisory boards), collective executives and directors (administrations, directorates), counting commissions, audit commissions (auditors), liquidation commissions and heads of organisations exercising the authority of sole executive bodies of other organisations that have committed the administrative offences provided for by Articles 13.25, 14.24, 15.17-15.22, 15.23.1, 15.24.1, 15.29-15.31, Part 9 of Article 19.5, Article 19.7.3 of this Code, shall be administratively liable as officials. The persons that carry out the functions of a member of a tender, auction, quotation or unified commission set up by a state or municipal customer, by a budget-financed institution (hereinafter referred to in Articles 3.5, 7.29 - 7.32, Part 7 of Article 19.5, Article 19.7.2 and Article 19.7.4 of this Code as customers) or by empowered body and have committed the administrative offences envisaged by Articles 7.29 - 7.32 of the present Code shall be accountable under administrative law as officials. The persons that carry out entrepreneurial activities without forming a legal entity and have committed administrative offences shall be accountable under administrative law as officials, except as otherwise established by the present Code.

Article 2.5. The Administrative Liabilities of Military Servicemen, of the Citizens Called up to Undergo Periodical Military Training and of the Persons Having Special Ranks
1. For administrative offences, except for the administrative offences envisaged by Part 2 of the present Article, military servicemen, the citizens called up to undergo periodical military training, and the holders of special ranks who are personnel of internal affairs bodies, the bodies and institutions of the criminal penitentiary system, the State Fire Fighting Service, the bodies charged with drug and psychotropic substances control and customs bodies in accordance with the federal laws and other regulatory legal acts of the Russian Federation regulating the undergoing of military service (of service) by the said persons and the status thereof shall bear disciplinary liability.

2. For the administrative offences envisaged by Articles 5.1-5.26, 5.45-5.52, 5.56, 6.3, 7.29-7.32, Chapter 8, Article 11.16 (in as far as it concerns fire safety requirements outside the place of military service (place of service) or the place of periodical military training), Chapter 12, Article 14.9, part 3 of Article 14.32, Chapters 15 and 16, Articles 17.3, 17.7-17.9, by Parts 1 and 3 of Article 17.14, Articles 17.15, 18.1-18.4, parts 2.1, 2.6 of Article 19.5, Articles 19.5.7, 19.7.2, 19.7.4, part 5 of Article 19.8 and Article 20.4 (in as far as it concerns fire safety requirements outside the place of military service (place of service) or the place of periodical military training) of the present Code the persons mentioned in Part 1 of the present Article shall bear administrative liability on a general basis.

Article 2.6. Administrative Responsibility of Foreign Citizens, Stateless Persons and Foreign Legal Entities

1. Foreign citizens, stateless persons and foreign legal entities who have committed administrative offences on the territory of the Russian Federation shall be administratively liable on general grounds.

2. Foreign citizens, stateless persons and foreign legal entities who have committed administrative offences on the continental shelf and in the economic exclusion zone of the Russian Federation, provided for by Part 2 of Article 8.16, Articles 8.17 - 8.20, Part 2 of Article 19.4 of this Code, shall be administratively liable on general grounds.

3. The issue of the administrative responsibility of a foreign citizen, who is immune from the administrative jurisdiction of the Russian Federation in compliance with the federal laws and international treaties of the Russian Federation and who has committed an administrative offence on the territory of the Russian Federation, shall be resolved in conformity with the rules of international law.

Article 2.6.1. Administrative Liability of Owners (Possessors) of Transport Vehicles

Federal Law No. 69-FZ of April 21, 2011 amended part 1 of Article 2.6.1 of this Code. The amendments shall enter into force on January 1, 2012

1. Owners (possessors) of transport vehicles shall be held administratively liable for administrative road traffic offences and the administrative offences concerning land improvement provided for by laws of constituent entities of the Russian Federation which are made with the use of transport vehicles, if they are recorded by special automatically-operated technical devices which can perform the functions of photography, cinematographic recording and video recording or by photographic, cinematographic and video recording equipment.

2. The owner (possessor) of a transport vehicle shall be exempted from administrative liability if in the course of the consideration of a complaint to a judgement in a case of administrative office turned out in accordance with Part 3 of Article 28.6 of this Code, the data contained in the complaint, that at the time of recording the administrative offence the transport vehicle was possessed or used by another person or by this time it had ceased to be in his/her possession as a result of unlawful actions of other persons, were confirmed.

Article 2.7. Urgent Need
Where a person inflicts wrong against interests protected by the law in the event of urgent necessity, that is, for the prevention of a direct danger to a person, or to the rights of the given person, or of other persons, as well as to the interests of the state or society protected by the law, and where this danger could not be prevented by other means and the inflicted wrong is less than the one that has been prevented, it shall not be deemed an administrative offence.

Article 2.8. Insanity
A natural person who, when committing wrongful actions (omission), was insane, that is, could not comprehend the actual nature and wrongfulness of his actions (omission), or could not direct them as a result of a chronic mental disorder, or a temporary mental disorder, or imbecility, or any other mental disease, shall not be administratively liable.

Article 2.9. Possible Relief from Administrative Responsibility, When an Administrative Offence Is Insignificant
Where an administrative offence is insignificant, a judge, or a body, or an official authorized to resolve a case concerning the administrative offence, may relieve the person, who has committed the administrative offence, of administrative responsibility and limit themselves to a reprimand.

Article 2.10. Administrative Responsibility of Legal Entities
1. Legal entities are administratively liable for committing administrative offences in the cases provided for by the articles of Section II of this Code or by the laws on administrative offences of subjects of the Russian Federation.
2. In the event it is not indicated in the articles of Sections I, III, IV and V of this Code that the norms, established by these articles, apply only to a natural person or only to a legal entity, these norms are equally effective either in respect of a natural person or in respect of a legal entity, safe for the cases where these norms by the meaning thereof apply or may apply only to a natural person.
3. In the event that several legal entities have merged, the newly formed legal entity shall be administratively liable.
4. Where a legal entity has been adjoined to another legal entity, the legal entity, which has annexed another legal entity, shall be administratively liable.
5. Where a legal entity has been divided or one or several legal entities have separated out of a legal entity, the legal entity to which, according to the separating balance, the rights and liabilities in respect of the transactions made or the property relating to a committed administrative offence have been assigned, shall be administratively liable.
6. Where a legal entity of one type transforms into a legal entity of another type, the newly formed legal entity shall be administratively liable.
7. In the event of committing an administrative offence by the sole executive body of a legal entity that has the status of a legal entity, an administrative penalty shall be imposed thereupon within the limits of the sanction envisaged for legal entities.

Chapter 3. Administrative Penalty

Article 3.1. Aims of an Administrative Penalty
1. An administrative penalty is a punitive measure for committing an administrative offence, established by the state, and it shall be administered for the purpose of preventing the commitment of new offences either by the offender himself, or by other persons.

2. An administrative penalty may not be aimed at the abasement of human dignity of the natural person who has committed an administrative offence, or at inflicting on him physical suffering, or at damaging business reputation of a legal entity.

Article 3.2. Types of Administrative Penalties
1. The following types of administrative penalties may be established and imposed for committing administrative offences:

1) warning;
2) administrative fine;
3) abrogated from July 1, 2011;
4) confiscation of the instrument or the object of an administrative offence;
5) deprivation of a special right granted to a natural person;
6) administrative arrest;
7) administrative deportation from the Russian Federation of a foreign citizen or a stateless person;
8) disqualification.
9) administrative suspension of the activity.

2. The administrative penalties enumerated in Items 1 to 4 and 9 of the first part of this Article may apply to a legal entity.

3. The administrative penalties enumerated in Items 3 to 9 of Part 1 of this Article shall be established only by this Code.

Article 3.3. Principal and Additional Administrative Penalties
1. A warning, an administrative fine, deprivation of a special right granted to a natural person, an administrative arrest, disqualification and an administrative suspension of the activity may be established and imposed as principal administrative penalties.

2. Confiscation of the instrument or subject of an administrative offence, as well as administrative deportation from the Russian Federation of a foreign citizen or a stateless person may be established and imposed either as a principal penalty, or as an additional one.

3. For one administrative offence there may be imposed either a principal administrative penalty, or a principal and additional one from the number of penalties indicated in the sanctions part of an applicable article of the Given Part of this Code or of the law on administrative responsibility of a subject of the Russian Federation.

Article 3.4. Warning
1. A warning is an administrative punitive measure in the form of an official censure of a natural person or of a legal entity. A warning shall be issued in writing.

2. A warning shall be imposed for administrative offences made for the first time, if there is no harm caused, or there is no threat of causing harm, to human life or health, to items of the animal or plant kingdom, the environment, cultural heritage items (historical or cultural monuments) of peoples of the Russian Federation, state security, or the threat of emergencies of natural and man-caused character, as well as if there is no damage caused to property.

Article 3.5. The Administrative Fine

1. "Administrative fine" is a monetary sanction expressed in terms of roubles which is set in the following amounts: for citizens not exceeding five thousand roubles; for officials fifty thousand roubles; for legal entities one million roubles or, where it is provided for by Articles 14.40, 14.42 of this Code, five million roubles, or it may be expressed as a value divisible by:

   1) the value of the object of the administrative offence as of the time of termination or stopping of the administrative offence;

2) the sum of taxes, fees or customs duties unpaid and outstanding as of the time of termination or stopping of the administrative offence or the sum of an illegal currency transaction or the sum of the amounts of money or the value of internal and external securities written off and/or entered in without observance of the established reservation requirement or the sum of currency proceeds that has not been sold in the established procedure or the sum of amounts of money not credited within the established term to accounts in empowered banks, or the sum of money resources, multiple to the amount of the refinancing rate of the Central Bank of the Russian Federation from the sum of the money resources credited to the accounts with the empowered banks with the infringement of the established term, or the sum of amounts of money not returned when due to the Russian Federation or the amount of money, the value of securities, other property or the cost of services of a pecuniary nature which have been unlawfully transferred or rendered on behalf of a legal entity or the sum of an unpaid administrative fine;

3) the sum of the proceeds of an offender from the sale of goods (work, service) in the market of which the administrative offence has been committed, for the calendar year preceding the year in which the administrative offence was detected or the part of the calendar year in which the administrative offence was detected preceding the date of detection of the administrative offence, unless the offender pursued the activity of selling goods (work, service) in the preceding calendar year;

4) the amount of proceeds derived by the offender from selling commodities (works or services) as a result of wrongful holding up of prices (tariffs, rate scales, rates and the like) for the whole period while the offence was lasting but at most for one year;

5) the initial (maximum) price of a state or municipal contract when an order is placed for the delivery of goods, performance of works or provision of services for state or municipal needs, as well as of a civil law contract of a budget-financed institution when placing an order to supply commodities, carry out works or render services for meeting the needs of the budget-financed institution (hereinafter also referred to as contracts of supplying commodities, carrying out works or rendering services to meet the needs of customers or contracts.

6) the sum of excessive income or the sum of the losses which have been evaded by the person as the result of illegal use of insider information and/or market manipulation.

2. The amount of an administrative offence shall not be below one hundred roubles.

3. The amount of an administrative fine calculated on the basis of the value of the object of an administrative offence, and also on the basis of the sum of unpaid taxes, fees or customs duties or the sum of an illegal currency transaction or the sum of amounts of money or the value of internal and external securities written off and/or entered in without observance of the established reservation requirement or the sum of currency proceeds that have not been sold in the established procedure or the sum of amounts of money not entered when due in accounts in empowered banks, or the sums of money resources multiple to the amount of the refinancing rate of the Central Bank of the Russian Federation from the sum of the money resources credited to the accounts with the empowered banks with the infringement of the established term, or the sum of amounts of money not returned when due to the Russian Federation or the amount of money, the value of securities, other property or the cost of services of a pecuniary nature which have been unlawfully transferred or rendered on behalf of a legal entity shall not exceed the three-fold amount of the value of the object of the administrative offence or of the relevant sum or value, in the cases provided for by Articles 7.27 and 7.27.1 of the present Code may not exceed the fivefold amount of the value of the stolen property, and in the case provided for by Article 19.28 of this Code the one hundred-fold amount of monetary assets, the cost of securities, other property, services of property nature, other property rights which have been illegally transferred, rendered, promised or offered on behalf of the legal entity.

4. The amount of an administrative fine calculated on the basis of the sum of proceeds of an offender from the sale of goods (work, services) in the market of which the administrative offence has been committed shall not exceed one twenty fifth of the aggregate sum of proceeds from the sale of all goods (works, services) for the calendar year preceding the year in which the administrative offence was detected or the part of the calendar year preceding the date of detection of the administrative offence, unless the offender pursued the activity of selling goods (works, services) in the preceding calendar year.

4.1. The rate of an administrative fine estimated on the basis of the amount of an offender's proceeds derived from selling commodities (works and services) as a result of wrongful holding up of prices (tariffs, rate scales, rates and the like) may not exceed the two-fold amount of the proceeds received in excess for the whole regulation period while the offence was lasting but at most for one year.

5. The sum of an administrative offence shall be entered in the budget in full in accordance with the legislation of the Russian Federation.

6. The following are not subject to an administrative fine: sergeants, sergeant-majors, soldiers or sailors undergoing military service on draft, and also cadets of military professional education institutions before the conclusion of a military service contract with them.

Article 3.6. Abrogated from July 1, 2011.

Article 3.7. Confiscation of the Instrument or Subject of an Administrative Offence

1. Confiscation of the instrument or subject of an administrative offence is the compulsory transfer to federal ownership or the ownership of a subject of the Russian Federation of articles which are not withdrawn from circulation. Confiscation shall be imposed by a judge.

2. Confiscation of hunting weapon, ammunition and other permitted hunting and fishing equipment may not be imposed on those persons for whom hunting and fishing are the main legal sources of means of sustenance.

3. The seizure from an administrative offender who unlawfully has in his possession the following instruments or subjects of an offence shall not be deemed a confiscation:
   - items subject to return to the legal owner thereof in compliance with the federal laws;
   - items withdrawn from circulation or wrongly possessed by a person who has committed an administrative offence and for that and other reasons subject to transfer to state ownership or to destruction.
Article 3.8. Deprivation of a Special Right

1. Deprivation of a natural person, who has committed an administrative offence, of a special right granted to him before, shall be imposed for gross or systematic violation of the procedure for enjoying this right in the cases provided for by the articles of the Special Part of this Code. Deprivation of a special right shall be imposed by a judge.

2. The term of deprivation of a special right may not be less than one month or more than three years.

3. Deprivation of a special right in the form of the right to drive a transport vehicle may not be imposed on the person using his transport vehicle by reason of his disability, except of the cases provided for by Parts 1 and 3 of Article 12.8, Article 12.26 and Part 2 of Article 12.27, when, when a person drives his transport vehicle in a state of alcoholic intoxication, or avoids a proper medical examination as regards alcoholic intoxication, or where said person leaves, in defiance of the established rules, the place of a road traffic accident of which he is a participant.

4. The deprivation of a special right in the form of a right to hunt is not applicable to the persons for which hunting is a basic legal source of means of subsistence.

Article 3.9. Administrative Arrest

1. Administrative arrest shall consist of keeping an offender isolated from society and shall be established for the term up to fifteen days, and up to 30 days for violating the demands of a state of emergency or of the legal regime of an anti-terrorist operation. An administrative arrest shall be imposed by a judge.

2. An administrative arrest shall only be established and imposed in exceptional cases for individual types of administrative offences, and it may not be enforced in respect of pregnant women, or women having children of fourteen years or less, or in respect of persons who have not attained the age of eighteen years, or disabled persons of Group I and II, military servicemen, the citizens called up to undergo periodical military training, and also the holders of special ranks who are personnel of internal affairs bodies, the bodies and institutions of the criminal penitentiary system, the State Fire Fighting Service, the bodies charged with drug and psychotropic substances control and customs bodies.

3. The term of any administrative detention shall be included into the term of the administrative arrest.

Article 3.10. Administrative Deportation from the Russian Federation of a Foreign Citizen or of a Stateless Person

1. Administrative deportation from the Russian Federation of foreign citizens or stateless persons shall consist of the compulsory and controlled transportation of said citizens and persons across the state border of the Russian Federation beyond the boundaries of the Russian Federation (hereinafter referred to as compulsory deportation from the Russian Federation), and in the cases, provided for by the laws of the Russian Federation, the controlled independent exit of foreign citizens and stateless persons out of the Russian Federation.

2. Administrative deportation from the Russian Federation as an administrative punitive measure shall be established in respect of foreign citizens and stateless persons and shall be imposed by a judge, but in the event a foreign citizen or a stateless person commits an administrative offence when entering the Russian Federation, it shall be done by appropriate officials.

On the procedure for an administrative banishment of a foreign citizen out of the boundaries of the Russian Federation, see Federal Law No. 115-FZ of July 25, 2002

3. An administrative expulsion from the Russian Federation is not applicable to military servicemen who are foreign citizens.

4. While ordering an administrative penalty in the form of administrative expulsion of a foreign citizen or stateless person from the Russian Federation a judge shall take a decision on his/her enforced expulsion from the Russian Federation or on his/her leaving the Russian Federation on his/her own under control.

From January 1, 2012 up to July 1, 2012 the provisions of part 5 of Article 3.10 of this Code (in the wording of Federal Law No. 410-FZ of December 6, 2011) shall be applied as special institutions get formed in the established procedure by executive governmental bodies of subjects of the Russian federation for the keeping of foreign citizens and stateless persons subject to administrative expulsion from the Russian Federation or deportation.

5. For the purpose of performing an administrative penalty administered to a foreign citizen or stateless person in the form of enforced expulsion from the Russian Federation a judge is entitled to subject such persons to detention in a special institution intended for the foreign citizens and stateless persons who are subject to administrative expulsion from the Russian Federation.

6. An administrative penalty in the form of exit from the Russian Federation on one's own under control may be administered to a foreign citizen or stateless person when administrative expulsion from the Russian Federation is at the expense of such foreign citizen or stateless person or at the expense of the body, diplomatic mission or consular institution -- that has invited them -- of the foreign state of which the expelled foreign citizen is citizen, the international organisation or mission thereof, the natural person or legal entity mentioned in Article 16 of Federal Law No. 115-FZ of July 25, 2002 on the Legal Status of Foreign Citizens in the Russian Federation.

Article 3.11. Disqualification

1. "Disqualification" means the deprivation of a natural person of his/her right to occupy positions in the federal state civil service, positions in the state civil service of a subject of the Russian Federation, positions in a municipal service, occupy positions in the executive managerial body of a legal entity, sit on a board of directors (supervisory board), pursue the entrepreneurial activity of managing a legal entity, to direct a legal entity in the other cases envisaged by the legislation of the Russian Federation or to pursue activities in the area of training sportsmen (including medical support for them) and organising and conducting sport events. 2. Disqualification shall be set for a term of from six months to three years.

3. Disqualification is applicable to the persons who occupy positions in the federal state civil service, positions in the state civil service of a subject of the Russian Federation, positions in a municipal service, the persons who carry out organisational-managerial or administrative-economic functions in a body of a legal entity, the members of a board of directors (supervisory board), persons pursuing entrepreneurial activities without forming a legal entity, the persons pursuing private practice, or to coaches, sport medicine specialists or other specialists in the area of physical education and sport who occupy the positions included in the list approved in accordance with the legislation of the Russian Federation.

Article 3.12. Administrative Suspension of Activity

1. Administrative suspension of activity comes down to a temporary termination of the activity of persons engaged in business activity without creating a legal entity, of legal entities, of their affiliates, representations, structural subdivisions and production sectors, as well as of the running of aggregates, objects, buildings or structures, of the performance of the individual kinds of activity (of works) and of rendering services. An administrative suspension of the activity shall be applied in case of a threat to the life or the health of people, of an epidemy, epizooty, contamination (pollution) of the objects intended for the quarantine by quarantine items, if a radiation accident occurs or a technogenic catastrophe breaks out, if essential harm is inflicted upon the state or standard of the environment, or if an administrative law offence is perpetrated in the area of the traffic in narcotics, psychotrophic substances and their precursors, plants containing narcotics, or psychotropic substances, or precursors thereof and in their parts containing narcotics, or psychotropic substances, or precursors thereof, in the area of counteraction to legalising (laundering) incomes derived in a criminal way, and to financing terrorism, in the area of the restrictions established under federal laws in respect of foreign citizens, stateless persons and foreign organisations, as regards the rules for engaging foreign citizens and stateless persons in labour activities exercised at trade outlets (including shopping complexes), in the field of control procedures, public order maintenance and public security, in the field of town-planning activity and transport safety.

An administrative suspension of activity shall be assigned by a judge. For the administrative offence stipulated by Part 3 of Article 9.1 of this Code (concerning a gross violation of the requirements of industrial safety) the administrative suspension of activity shall be assigned by the officials mentioned in Items 1 and 4 of Part 2 of Article 23.31 of this Code.

An administrative suspension of the activity shall be appointed only in cases stipulated in the Articles of the Special Part of the present Code, if a less rigorous kind of an administrative punishment cannot ensure the achievement of the goal set in the administrative punishment.

2. An administrative suspension of the activity shall be imposed for a term of up to ninety days. The time period for administrative suspension of activity shall be estimated from the time of actual suspension of activity of persons exercising business activities without forming a legal entity, of legal entities, their branches, representative offices, structural units and workshops, as well as of the operation of aggregates, facilities, buildings or structures, of the exercise of some kinds of activities (works) and of rendering services.

3. On the basis of a petition of a person engaged in business activity without creating a legal entity, or of a legal entity, the judge, body or official that has ordered an administrative penalty in the form of administrative suspension of activities, shall stop the execution of the administrative punishment in the form of an administrative suspension of the activity before the fixed time, if it is established that the circumstances mentioned in the first part of the present Article which served as a ground for meting out the given administrative punishment have been eliminated.

Chapter 4. Imposition of an Administrative Penalty

Article 4.1. General Rules for Imposing an Administrative Penalty

1. An administrative penalty for committing an administrative offence shall be imposed within the limits, established by the law stipulating the responsibility for the given administrative offence, in compliance with this Code.

2. When imposing an administrative penalty on a natural person, the nature of the administrative offence committed by him, the personality of the culprit, his property status, the circumstances mitigating the administrative responsibility and the circumstances aggravating the administrative responsibility, shall be taken into account.

3. When imposing an administrative penalty on a legal entity, the nature of the administrative offence committed by it, the property and financial status of the legal entity, the circumstances mitigating the administrative responsibility and the circumstances aggravating the administrative responsibility, shall be taken into account.

3.1. In the cases provided for by Part 3 of Article 28.6 of this Code an administrative penalty shall be imposed in the form of an administrative fine. In this case, the amount of the administrative fine imposed shall be the least within the range of the sanction of the applicable article or part of article of the Special Part of the present Code, and in cases when the sanction of the applicable article or part of article of the Special Part of the present Code has a provision for an administrative penalty in the form of deprivation of the right to drive a vehicle or of an administrative arrest then the administrative penalty shall be ordered in the form of an administrative fine in the largest amount envisaged for citizens by Part 1 of Article 3.5 of the present Code.

4. Imposition of an administrative penalty shall not relieve a person, who has been penalized for failure to perform a duty, from carrying out this duty.

5. No one shall bear administrative responsibility twice for the same administrative offence.

Article 4.2. Circumstances Mitigating Administrative Responsibility

1. The following are deemed as circumstances alleviating administrative liability:

1) repentance by the person that has committed an administrative offence;

2) the voluntary termination of wrongful behaviour by the person that has committed an administrative offence;

3) the voluntary provision of information about an administrative offence by the person that has committed the administrative offence to a body empowered to carry out proceedings in a case of the administrative offence;

4) the assistance of the person that has committed an administrative offence rendered to a body empowered to carry out proceedings in a case of the administrative offence in establishing the circumstances that are to be established in the case of the administrative offence;

5) the prevention of harmful circumstances of an administrative offence by the person that has committed the administrative offence;

6) voluntary compensation by the person that has committed an administrative offence for inflicted damage or voluntary elimination of inflicted harm;

7) the voluntary performance by the person that has committed an administrative offence -- before the issuance of a decision in a case of the administrative offence -- of an order for elimination of committed offence issued by a body responsible for state control (supervision);

8) the commission of an administrative offence in the state of strong mental agitation (heat of passion) or in grave personal or family circumstances;

9) the commission of an administrative offence by a minor;

10) the commission of an administrative offence by a pregnant woman or a woman having an infant.

2. A judge, body or official, while considering a case concerning an administrative offence, may deem as mitigating circumstances not indicated in this Code or in the laws of subjects of the Russian Federation on administrative offences.

3. The present Code may provide for other circumstances alleviating administrative liability for the commission of specific administrative offences and also the details of taking account of the circumstances alleviating administrative liability when an administrative penalty is determined for the commission of specific administrative offences.

Article 4.3. Circumstances Aggravating Administrative Responsibility

1. The following circumstances shall be deemed as aggravating administrative responsibility:

   1) continuation of wrongful conduct, despite the demand of authorized persons to terminate it;
   2) repeated commitment of a similar administrative offence, in which the person has already been penalized for committing such an offence in respect of which the term, provided for by Article 4.6 of this Code, has not yet expired;
   3) drawing minors into the commitment of an administrative offence;
   4) committing of an administrative offence by a group of persons;
   5) committing an administrative offence during natural disasters or under other emergency circumstances;
   6) committing an administrative offence in a state of alcoholic intoxication.

A judge, body or official, imposing an administrative offence, depending on the nature of the committed administrative offence, may not deem the given circumstance as aggravating.

2. The circumstances provided for by Part 1 of this Article, may not be deemed as aggravating in the event, if said circumstances are stipulated by the appropriate rules on administrative responsibility for committing an administrative offence as qualifying indicia of the administrative offence.

3. The present Code may provide for other circumstances aggravating administrative liability for the commission of specific administrative offences and also the details of taking account of the circumstances aggravating administrative liability when an administrative penalty is determined for the commission of specific administrative offences.

Article 4.4. The Imposition of Administrative Sanctions for the Committal of Several Administrative Offences

1. If a person has committed two or more administrative offences an administrative sanction shall be imposed for each offence.

2. If a person has committed one action (omission) having the features of administrative offences for which accountability is envisaged by or and more articles (parts of articles) of the present Code and for which case the hearing shall fall within the jurisdiction of one and the same judge, body or official, an administrative sanction shall be imposed within the limits of a sanction that envisages the imposition of a tougher administrative sanction on the person who has committed said action (omission).

3. In the case envisaged by Part 2 of the present article an administrative sanction shall be imposed:

1) within the limits of a sanction which does not envisage the imposition of an administrative sanction in the form of a warning if one of said sanctions envisages the imposition of an administrative sanction in the form of a warning;

2) within a sanction which can cause the imposition of a larger administrative fine in terms of money if said sanctions envisage the imposition of an administrative sanction in the form of an administrative fine.

4. When an administrative sanction is imposed in keeping with Parts 2 and 3 of the present article additional administrative sanctions may be imposed as envisaged by each of the sanctions.

Article 4.5. Limitation on Holding a Person Administratively Responsible

1. A decision in respect of a case concerning an administrative offence may not be rendered upon the expiry of two months (in respect of a case on an administrative offence tried by a judge upon the expiry of three months) from the date of committing the administrative offence, in the event of violating the laws of the Russian Federation on export control, on internal sea waters, or on inland seas, or on the continental shelf, or on the economic exclusion zone of the Russian Federation, of the patent, antimonopoly, budgetary or currency laws of the Russian Federation and acts of the currency regulation bodies, on the protection of the environment, legislation on energy saving and improvement of energy efficiency, legislation of the Russian Federation, on public health care, on the population’s sanitary-epidemiological safety, on road traffic safety (as regards administrative offences entailing the infliction of minor-gravity and medium gravity harm upon the victim’s health), on copyright and neighbouring rights, on trademarks, service marks and names of the places of the origin of goods, of the laws of the Russian Federation on the use of atomic power, on taxes and fees, on the protection of consumers’ rights, on the state regulation of prices (tariffs), on natural monopolies, on the fundamentals of regulation of public utility organisations' tariffs, on advertising, on electric-power industry, on lotteries, on elections and referendums, on participation in share construction of apartment houses and (or) other immovable property units, on counteracting the legalisation (laundering) of incomes received by way of crime and the financing of terrorism, on joint-stock companies, on limited liability companies, on the securities market, on investment funds, non-state pension funds, the legislation on countering the illegal use of inside information and market manipulation, as well as in the event of violating the immigration rules, rules for engaging in labour activities in the Russian Federation foreign citizens and stateless persons (in particular, foreign workers), legislation on the insolvency (bankruptcy), on placement of orders to supply goods, carry out works and render services for meeting state and municipal needs, on the organisation of activity in the sale of goods (performance of works or services) at retail markets, on fire safety, on industrial safety, such a decision may not be rendered after the expiration of one year as of the date of committing the administrative offence, for infringement of the customs legislation of the Customs union in the framework of EurAsEC (hereinafter - the Customs union) and (or) the legislation of the Russian Federation about customs business after two years from the date of committing the administrative offence, and for violating the legislation of the Russian Federation on counteraction against corruption upon the expiry of six years as from the date when an administrative offence is committed.

2. In the event of a continuous administrative offence, the terms provided for by Part 1 of this Article shall be calculated beginning from the date of detecting the administrative offence.

3. A person may be held administratively responsible for an administrative offence entailing the imposition of an administrative penalty in the form of disqualification within one year at the latest as of the date of committing the administrative offence, and if an administrative offence is continuous, this may be done within one year at the latest as of the date of detecting the administrative offence.

4. When there is a refusal to initiate criminal proceedings, or criminal proceedings are terminated but the indicia of an administrative offence are present in the actions of an individual, the terms, provided for by Part 1 of this Article, shall be calculated starting from the date of rendering the decision about the refusal to initiate criminal proceedings or to terminate them.

5. Where an application of a person, brought to trial for an administrative offence, for consideration of his case at the location of his residence, is allowed, the limitation for holding him administratively responsible shall be suspended from the moment of allowing this application to the moment of receipt of the case file by the judge, body, or official authorized to consider the case at the place of residence of the person brought to trial for the administrative offence.

5.1. The period of limitation for holding one accountable on administrative grounds for the administrative offences envisaged by Article 6.18 of the present Code, in as much as it concerns the use of a prohibited substance and/or prohibited method, begins from the day on which the all-Russia anti-doping organisation receives a statement from a laboratory accredited by the World Anti-Doping Agency confirming the fact that a sportsman has used a prohibited substance and/or prohibited method.

6. The period of limitations for holding someone accountable under administrative law for the administrative offences envisaged by Articles 14.9, 14.31, 14.31.1-14.33 of the present Code shall be counted from the date of entry into force of the decision of the commission of the antimonopoly body that has established the fact of breach of the antimonopoly legislation of the Russian Federation.

Article 4.6. The Term within Which a Person Is Deemed to Be Administratively Penalized
A person punishable for committing an administrative offence shall be deemed to be administratively penalized for one year as of the date of terminating the execution of the decision on imposition of the administrative penalty.

Article 4.7. Reimbursement for Material and Moral Damage Inflicted by an Administrative Offence
1. A judge, when considering a case concerning an administrative offence, shall be entitled, in the absence of a dispute about reimbursement for material damage, to resolve the issue of reimbursement for material damage simultaneously with imposition of the administrative penalty.

Disputes about reimbursement for material damage shall be settled in civil court proceedings.

2. A dispute about reimbursement for material damage, that relates to a case concerning an administrative offence which is considered by other authorized body or official, shall be settled by court in civil court proceedings.

3. Disputes concerning reimbursement for moral damage inflicted by an administrative offence shall be considered by court in civil court proceedings.

Article 4.8. Calculation of Periods of Time
1. The periods of time envisaged by the present Codes shall be calculated in hours, days and nights, days, months, years. The running of the time period so defined shall begin on the next day after the calendar date or the occurrence of the event by which the beginning of the time period is defined.

2. The time period calculated in days and nights shall expire at 24 o'clock of the last day and night. The time period calculated in months shall expire on the corresponding date of the last month and if such a month has no corresponding date the time period shall expire on the last day and night of such a month. The time period calculated in years shall expire on the corresponding month and date of the last year.

3. The time period calculated in days shall expire on the last day of the established time period. If the end of the time period calculated in days falls on a day off the last day of the time period shall be considered the first working day following the day off.

case of an administrative offence, the duration of the interim permit to drive a transport vehicle of the appropriate type shall be extended by the judge or official authorized to consider the appeal pending issuance of a decision in respect of the appeal against the decision on the case on the administrative offence.

4. Where necessary, photography, filming, videotape recording and other established ways of fixing material evidence shall be used, when effecting a seizure of things and documents.

5. As regards a seizure of things or documents, a record thereof shall be drawn up or an appropriate entry shall be made to a record of a delivery, in a record on the examination of the scene of an administrative offence, or in a record of an administrative detention. As regards withdrawal of a driver's license, of a tractor driver-operator's license (a tractor driver's license), of a navigator's license and of a pilot's license, an entry about it shall be made in a record of the administrative offence or in a record on examination of the scene of the administrative offence.

5.1. If documents are seized, except for the documents specified in Part 3 of the present Article, copies thereof shall be made which shall be attested by the official who seized the documents and be handed over to the person from which the documents were seized, with an entry to this effect being made in the report. If copies cannot be made or handed over simultaneously with the seizure of the documents said official shall hand over attested copies of the documents within five days after the seizure to the person from which the documents were seized, with an entry to this effect being made in the report. If upon the expiry of five days after the seizure of the documents no attested copies of the documents have been handed over to the person from which the documents were seized then attested copies of the documents shall be sent by post as a registered postal dispatch within three days, with an entry to this effect being made in the report including an indication of the number of the postal dispatch. Copies of the documents shall be sent to the address of location of the legal entity or to the residential address of the natural person which is specified in the report.

6. A record of a seizure of articles and documents shall contain information about the type and requisite elements of seized documents, about the type, number and other identification marks of confiscated articles, including the type, trademark, model, caliber, series, number and other identification marks of weapons, about the type and quantity of ammunition.

7. An entry about the use of photography, filming, videotape recording and other established ways of fixing documents shall be made in a record of a seizure of articles and documents. Materials, gained during a seizure of articles and documents with the use of photography, filming, videotape recording and other established ways of fixing material evidence, shall be attached to an appropriate record.

8. A record of seizure of articles and documents shall be signed by the official who drew it up, by the person whose articles and documents have been confiscated, as well as by attesting witnesses. If a person, whose articles and documents have been confiscated, refuses to sign the record thereof, an appropriate entry shall be made therein. A copy of the record shall be served to the person whose articles and documents have been confiscated, or to his legal representative.

9. Where necessary, confiscated articles and documents shall be packed and sealed at the place of seizure. Confiscated articles and documents, pending the consideration of the case concerning an administrative offence, shall be kept at the places determined by the person, who has effected the seizure of the articles and documents, in the procedure established by an appropriate federal executive body.

10. Confiscated firearms and cartridges thereto, other weapons, as well as ammunition, shall be kept in a procedure determined by a federal executive body having authority in internal affairs.
11. Confiscated perishables shall be delivered in the procedure established by the Government of the Russian Federation to appropriate organisations for sale, and where the sale thereof is impossible, they shall be destroyed.

12. Confiscated drugs and psychotropic substances, as well as ethyl alcohol, alcohol and alcohol-containing products, which do not meet the obligatory requirements of standards, sanitary regulations and hygienic normative standards, shall be subject to processing or destruction in the procedure established by the Government of the Russian Federation. Samples of drugs, psychotropic substances, ethyl alcohol, of alcohol and alcohol-containing products shall be kept, pending the entry into legal force of a decision in the case concerning the administrative offence.

Article 27.11. Assessed Value of Confiscated Articles and of Other Valuables

1. Confiscated articles shall be subject to assessment where:

a rule of responsibility for an administrative offence provides for the imposition of an administrative penalty in the form of an administrative fine calculated as an amount divisible by the cost of confiscated articles;

confiscated articles are perishables and are sent for sale or destruction;

ethyl alcohol, alcohol and alcohol-containing products withdrawn from circulation under the laws of the Russian Federation are sent for processing or destruction.

2. The value of confiscated articles shall be determined on the basis of state administered prices, where such are established. In all other instances the value of confiscated articles shall be determined on the basis of their market value. Where necessary, the value of confiscated articles shall be determined on the basis of an expert report.

3. Conversion of foreign currency, confiscated as a subject of an administrative offence, into the currency of the Russian Federation shall be carried out at the rate of the Central Bank of the Russian Federation effective on the date of committing the administrative offence.

Article 27.12. Banning from Driving a Transport Vehicle, Examination for Alcoholic Intoxication and a Medical Examination in Respect of Intoxication

1. A person who drives a transport vehicle of appropriate type and gives sufficient grounds to consider him intoxicated by alcohol, as well as persons who have committed the administrative offences provided for by Part 1 of Article 12.3, by Part 2 of Article 12.5, by Parts 1 and 2 of Article 12.7 of this Code, shall be subject to be banned from driving the transport vehicle, pending the elimination of the reason for the dismissal.

1.1. A person driving a transport vehicle of a given type in respect of whom there are sufficient reasons to believe that he/she is in a state of intoxication is subject to an examination for alcoholic intoxication in compliance with Part 6 of this article. In the event of refusal to pass an examination for alcoholic intoxication or in the event of this person's disagreement with the results of such examination, as well as where there are sufficient reasons to believe that the person is in a state of intoxication and there is a negative result of his/her examination for alcoholic intoxication, the said person is to be sent for a medical examination for intoxication.

2. Banning from driving a transport vehicle of appropriate type, ordering an examination in respect of alcoholic intoxication and sending for a medical examination in respect of intoxication shall be effected by officials empowered to exercise state control and supervision over traffic safety and operation of the transport vehicle of the appropriate type; this shall be done in respect of the driver of a transport vehicle of the Armed Forces of the Russian Federation, internal security troops of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of the Russian Federation, the corps of engineers and road-building military units attached to the federal bodies of executive power or of rescue military units of the federal executive power body, authorized to accomplish the tasks involved in civil defence likewise by officials of the military road inspectorate in the presence of two attesting witnesses.

3. In the cases of a ban from driving a transport vehicle and ordering a medical examination in respect of alcoholic intoxication, an appropriate record shall be drawn up a copy of which shall be served to the person against whom this measure of proceeding in the case, concerning the administrative offence, has been taken.

4. A record of being banned from driving a transport vehicle of appropriate type, as well as a record of ordering a medical examination in respect of alcoholic intoxication, shall contain the date, time, place and grounds for the ban from driving the transport vehicle and for ordering a medical examination, the office, family name and initials of the person who drew up the record, information about the transport vehicle and about the person against whom this measure of proceeding in the case concerning the administrative offence has been taken.

5. A record of being banned from driving a transport vehicle, as well as a record of ordering a medical examination in respect of alcoholic intoxication, shall contain the date, time, place and grounds for the ban from driving the transport vehicle and for ordering a medical examination, the office, family name and initials of the person who drew up the record, information about the transport vehicle and about the person against whom this measure of proceeding in the case concerning the administrative offence has been taken.

If a person, against whom this measure of proceeding in a case concerning an administrative offence has been taken, refuses to sign an appropriate record, a relevant entry shall be made therein.

6. An examination for alcoholic intoxication and legalisation of the results thereof, sending for a medical examination for intoxication, a medical examination in respect of intoxication and formalization of the results thereof shall be carried out in the procedure established by the Government of the Russian Federation.

7. The report in respect of an examination for alcoholic intoxication or the report in respect of a medical examination for intoxication shall be attached to the appropriate record. A copy of the report in respect of an examination for alcoholic intoxication and/or a copy of the report in respect of a medical examination for intoxication shall be handed in to the person in respect of which they have been drawn up.

Note. Abrogated.

Federal Law No. 69-FZ of April 21, 2011 reworded Article 27.13 of this Code. The new wording shall enter into force from July 1, 2012

Article 27.13. Detention of a Transport Vehicle and Prohibition on Operating It

1. When violating the rules for operation of a transport vehicle and for driving a transport vehicle of the appropriate type provided for by Part 1 of Article 11.8.1, Article 11.9, by Part 1 of Article 12.3, by Part 2 of Article 12.5, by Parts 1 and 2 of Article 12.7, by Parts 1 and 3 of Article 12.8, by Part 4 of Article 12.19, Parts 1 and 2 of Article 12.21.1, Part 1 of Article 12.21.2 and by Article 12.26 of this Code, the transport vehicle shall be detained, including its movement with the help of another transport vehicle and placement to a specially allotted place (to a specialised parking lot), as well as its storage at a specialized parking lot pending the elimination of reasons for detention thereof. When the administrative offences provided for by Parts 1 and 2 of Article 12.21.1 and Part 1 of Article 12.21.2 of this Code are committed and it is impossible because of technological characteristics of a transport vehicle to move and place it to a specialized parking lot, it shall be detained by way of stopping its movement with the help of blocking devices. If movement of other transport vehicles or pedestrians is impeded and the transport vehicle to be detained cannot be moved to a specialized parking lot because of its technological characteristics, it may be moved, in particular, by way of driving the detained transport vehicle by the driver thereof or by the person cited in Part 3 of this article, to the nearest place where it does not impede movement of other transport vehicles or pedestrians with the subsequent installation of blocking devices. Payment for movement of a transport vehicle and for storage thereof within the first 24 hours at a specialized parking lot and for installation of blocking devices shall not be collected.

2. When violating the rules for operating a transport vehicle and driving a transport vehicle provided for by 8.23, 9.3, Part 2 of Article 12.1, Article 12.4, Parts 2, 3 4-6 of Article 12.5, Part 2 of Article 12.37 of this Code, the operation of the transport vehicle shall be prohibited; and the state registration plates thereof shall be subject to removal, pending the elimination of reasons for prohibiting the operation of the transport vehicle.

2.1. Movement of a transport vehicle to the place of elimination of the reason for banning operation of a transport vehicle is allowable, except as provided for by Article 9.3 and Part 2 of Article 12.5 of this Code, but at most within 24 hours as of the time of banning operation of the transport vehicle.

3. Detention of a transport vehicle of appropriate type and prohibition on operating it shall be carried out by the officials authorised to draw up records of relevant administrative offences, and with respect to a transport vehicle of the Armed Forces of the Russian Federation, internal security troops of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of the Russian Federation, the corps of engineers and road-building military units attached to the federal bodies of executive power or of rescue military units of the federal executive power body, authorized to accomplish the tasks involved in civil defence- also by officials of the military traffic police.

4. A relevant entry shall be made in a record of the administrative offence or a separate record shall be drawn up regarding a detention of a transport vehicle of appropriate type and prohibition on operating it. A copy of a record of detaining a transport vehicle of appropriate type and on prohibiting operation thereof shall be served to the person against whom this measure of proceeding in the case concerning the administrative offence has been taken. A record of detaining a transport vehicle impeding the traffic of other transport means, in the absence of the driver thereof, shall be drawn up in the presence of two attesting witnesses.

5. Detention of a transport vehicle of the appropriate type, return of a transport vehicle, covering of expenses for storage thereof, as well as prohibition on operation of a transport vehicle shall be carried out in the procedure established by the Government of the Russian Federation.

Article 27.13.1. Detention of a Vessel Delivered to a Port of the Russian Federation

Materials obtained, when making an arrest thereof, with the use of photography, filming, videotape recording and other established ways of fixing material evidence, shall be attached to the record thereof.

5. Where necessary, goods, transport vehicles and other articles placed under arrest shall be packed and sealed.

6. A copy of a record of arresting goods, transport vehicles and other items shall be served to the person against whom this measure of proceeding in a case concerning an administrative offence has been taken, or to a legal representative thereof.

7. Where goods, transport vehicles or other items under arrest are alienated or concealed, the person, against whom this measure of securing proceedings on a case concerning an administrative offence has been taken, or the keeper thereof, shall be liable under the laws of the Russian Federation.

Article 27.14.1. Arrest of a Vessel Delivered to a Port of the Russian Federation

1. A vessel delivered to a port of the Russian Federation by officials mentioned in Items 8 and 10.1 of Part 1 of Article 27.2 of this Code, shall be arrested in accordance with Article 27.14 of this Code taking into account the provisions of this Article.

2. The procedure for keeping, maintaining and ensuring the safe moorage and return of detained vessels and the procedure for the possessors of the objects of the infrastructure of ports to be compensated for the expenses connected with keeping a vessel and supporting the life and activity of its crew, shall be established by the Government of the Russian Federation.

3. A vessel that has been an instrument of committing an administrative offence the administrative responsibility for which is established by Part 2 of Article 8.17 and by Articles 8.18-8.20 of this Code, shall be subject to immediate release after the depositing of a pledge in the procedure stipulated by Article 27.18 of this Code.

Article 27.15. Delivery

1. In the events provided for by Part 3 of Article 29.4 and by Item 8 of Part 1 of Article 29.7 of this Code, the delivery of the natural person, or of a lawful representative of the legal entity, which are on trial in connection with an administrative offence, or of a lawful representative of the minor who is administratively liable, as well as of a witness, shall be enforced.

2. The delivery shall be carried out:

   1) by the body authorized to exercise the functions involved in the enforced execution of court orders and in ensuring the established procedure for the exercise of activities by courts on the basis of a ruling issued by the judge or a decision issued by the official of the cited body who try a case on an administrative offence in the procedure established by the federal executive power body exercising the functions of normative legal regulation in respect of ensuring the established procedure for the exercise of activities by courts and of execution of judicial acts, as well as acts of other bodies;

   2) an internal affairs body (the police) on the basis of a ruling issued by the cited body, other body or official trying a case on an administrative offence in the procedure established by the federal executive power body in charge of internal affairs.

Article 27.16. Temporary Prohibition of the Activity

1. A temporary prohibition of the activity shall lie in a short-term termination of the activity fixed for a term up to consideration of a case by court or by the officials cited in Items 1 and 4 of Part 2 of Article 23.31 of this Code, of the affiliates, representations and structural subdivisions of a legal entity, as well as of the production sectors, and of the running of aggregates, objects, buildings or structures, of the performance of the individual kinds of activity (of works) and of rendering services. A temporary prohibition of the activity may be applied, if for committing an administrative law offence may be imposed an administrative punishment in the form of an administrative suspension of the activity. A temporary prohibition of the activity may be applied only in exceptional cases, if this is necessary in order to prevent a direct threat to the life or the health of people, the inception of an epidemy or an epizooty, the contamination (pollution) of the quarantine objects by quarantine items, the occurrence of a radiation accident or of a technogenic catastrophe, the infliction of essential harm upon the health or the standard of the environment, to eliminate violations manifesting themselves in unlawful engagement in labour activities in the Russian Federation of a foreign citizen or a stateless person or in non-observance of the limitations concerning the exercise of certain activities, which are established in compliance with federal laws in respect of foreign citizens, stateless persons and foreign citizens, or in violating the rules for engagement of foreign citizens and stateless persons in labour activities exercised at trade outlets (including shopping complexes), and if the prevention of the above-said circumstances by other methods is impossible.

   A temporary prohibition of the activity shall not be applied in case of a violation of the legislation of the Russian Federation on the counteraction to legalising (laundering) the incomes derived in a criminal way, and to financing terrorism. A suspension of transactions on the accounts of an organisation carrying out transactions with monetary funds or with the other kinds of property shall be effected in conformity with the legislation of the Russian Federation on the counteraction to legalising (laundering) the incomes derived in a criminal way, and to financing terrorism.

2. A temporary prohibition of the activity shall be imposed only by an official person authorised in conformity with Article 28.3 of the present Code to compile a protocol on an administrative law offence, for the perpetration of which an administrative punishment may be meted out in the form of an administrative suspension of the activity.

3. A protocol shall be compiled about a temporary prohibition, in which shall be indicated the ground for the application of this measure aimed at providing for the proceedings on the case of an administrative law offence, the date and the place of its compilation, the post, surname and initials of the official person who has compiled the protocol, information on the person in respect of whom the proceedings on the case of an administrative law offence are conducted, the object of the activity which has come under a temporary prohibition of the activity, the time of the actual termination of the activity, and the explanations of the person engaged in business activity without creating a legal entity, or of the legal representative of a legal entity.

4. The protocol on a temporary prohibition of the activity shall be signed by the official person who has compiled it, by the person who is engaged in business activity without creating a legal entity, or by the legal representative of a legal entity. If any one of the above-mentioned persons has not signed the protocol, the official person shall make in it the corresponding note to this effect.

5. A copy of the protocol on a temporary prohibition of the activity shall be handed in against receipt to the person engaged in business activity without creating a legal entity, or to the legal representative of a legal entity.

6. When a temporary prohibition of the activity is imposed by an official who has drawn up a record of temporary prohibition of activities, seals shall be fixed at the premises and places where commodities and other material valuables are kept, as well as at cash-desks, and they shall be sealed, as well as the other measures involved in the exercise by an official of a legal entity, by a person exercising business activities without forming a legal entity, or by a lawful representative of a legal entity of the activities required for temporary prohibition of the activity, shall be taken.

Article 27.17. Term for a Temporary Prohibition of the Activity

1. Abrogated.

2. Article 27.18. A Pledge for an Arrested Vehicle

1. A pledge for an arrested vessel shall consist in depositing by a natural person or legal entity in whose respect a case has been initiated concerning an administrative offence the administrative responsibility for which is established by Part 2 of Article 8.17 and by Articles 8.18-8.20 of this Code, by the ship possessor, insurer or by the competent body of the flag state, of monetary means to the court which has chosen such measure of ensuring the proceedings on the case concerning the administrative offence.

2. A pledge for an arrested vessel may be applied with respect to Russian and foreign vessels registered in the Russian Federation or in a foreign state which have become an instrument of committing one of the administrative offences, the administrative responsibility for which is established by Part 2 of Article 8.17 and by Articles 8.18-8.20 of this Code.

3. A pledge for an arrested vessel shall be applied obligatorily with respect to foreign vessels which have become an instrument of committing an administrative offence on the continental shelf and/or in the exclusive economic zone of the Russian Federation the administrative responsibility for which is established by Part 2 of Article 8.17 and by Articles 8.18-8.20 of this Code in the event that there is petition therefor of any of the persons mentioned in Part 1 of this Article.

4. A petition for applying a pledge for an arrested vessel shall, in written form, be sent to the court or to the official proceeding the case concerning the administrative offence. Upon receiving the petition for applying a pledge for the arrested vessel, the official proceeding the case concerning the administrative offence, must immediately, and, if it is necessary to find out additionally the circumstances of the administrative offence, within three days send the said petition with all the materials of the case to the court authorised to consider the case concerning the administrative offence.

5. The decision on applying a pledge for an arrested vessel and on the size of the pledge, shall be applied by the court within ten days from the day of receiving the petition mentioned in Part 4 of this Article from any of the persons mentioned in Part 1 of this Article. If such petition has been received from participants of the proceedings in a case concerning an administrative offence or if additional finding out of the circumstances of the case is necessary, except for the instances mentioned in Part 3 of this Article, the period for taking the decision on the application of a pledge for the arrested vessel may be prolonged but for not more than fifteen days.

6. The size of a pledge for an arrested vessel shall be determined by the court taking into account the size of the administrative fine established by the sanction of the applicable article of the Special part of this Code and/or taking into account - as determined on the basis of the opinion of an expert - the value of the vessel and of the other instruments of commission of the administrative offence and/or the size of the damage caused as a result of the commission of the offence. When determining the size of the pledge for an arrested vessel, there shall be taken into account the circumstances mentioned in Parts 2 and 3 of Article 4.1 of this Code.

7. The size of a pledge for an arrested vessel cannot be less than the size of the damage caused as a result of the commission of the administrative offence and than the maximum size of the administrative fine established by the sanction of the applicable article of the Special Part of this Code.

8. The decision of a judge on applying a pledge for an arrested vessel, shall be rendered in the form of a ruling, which may be appealed against in accordance with the rules established by Chapter 30 of this Code.

9. Copies of a ruling on the application of a pledge for an arrested vessel shall be handed over to the official proceeding the case concerning the administrative offence, to the pledger or his legal representative, to the natural person or legal entity in whose respect the proceedings are under way on the case concerning the administrative offence, to the legal representative of the said legal entity or its defender. The pledger or his legal representative shall be given an explanation about the procedure for returning the pledge for the arrested vessel and for recovering it into the revenue of the state.

10. The money that is the subject of a pledge for an arrested vessel, shall be paid into the deposit account of the court which has chosen such measure of ensuring the proceedings in the case concerning the administrative offence. About the acceptance of such pledge by the court, there shall be drawn up a report, whose copy shall be handed over to the pledger.

11. About the application of a pledge for an arrested vessel, the federal body of executive power in charge of foreign-affairs issues shall immediately notify the diplomatic representation or the consular institution of the flag state of the vessel in the Russian Federation.

12. In the event of commission of an administrative offence, the administrative responsibility for which is stipulated by Part 2 of Article 8.17 and by Articles 8.18-8.20 of this Code, with the use of a vessel in whose respect there has been applied a measure of ensuring the proceedings in the case concerning the administrative offence in the form of a pledge for the arrested vessel, by a court decision the said pledge shall be recovered into the revenue of the state.

Article 27.19. The Placement in Special Institutions of Foreign Citizens or Stateless Persons Subject to Administrative Expulsion from the Russian Federation

1. The placement in special institutions of foreign citizens or stateless persons subject to administrative expulsion from the Russian Federation means that they are escorted to the special institutions envisaged by the legislation of the Russian Federation (hereinafter referred to as "a special institution formed in the established procedure by executive governmental bodies of a subject of the Russian Federation") or the premises of border-guard bodies specifically designated for that purpose and are temporarily kept in such special institutions until their enforced expulsion from the Russian Federation.

2. Keeping in special institutions in conditions allowing no opportunity for the unauthorised leaving thereof shall be applied to foreign citizens or stateless persons as security for the implementation of a judge's order ordering an administrative penalty in the form of enforced expulsion from the Russian Federation or a decision of a border-guard body's official in respect of foreign citizens or stateless persons for administrative offences in the area of protection of the State Border of the Russian Federation.

3. A special institution formed in the established procedure by executive governmental bodies of a subject of the Russian Federation shall be used for the purpose of placing a foreign citizen or stateless person on the basis of a judge's order which shall be immediately performed by the federal executive governmental body empowered to carry out the functions of enforced implementation of writs of execution and of maintaining the established procedure for the operation of courts, in the procedure established by the federal executive governmental body in charge of the functions of normative legal regulation in the area of maintaining the established procedure for the operation of courts and enforcement of court's orders and decisions of other bodies.

4. On a judge's order or a decision of the relevant border-guard body's official premises of a border-guard body designated for the purpose shall be used for the placement of a foreign citizen or stateless person who has committed an administrative offence in the area of protection of the State Border of the Russian Federation.

Chapter 28. Initiating Proceedings in a Case Concerning an Administrative Offence

Article 28.1. Initiating Proceedings in a Case Concerning an Administrative Offence

Persons concerned shall be entitled to obtain information from a register of disqualified persons on a payable basis in the form of extracts regarding specific disqualified persons. The procedure for forming and keeping a register of disqualified persons, as well as the amount of payment for providing information from the register thereof, shall be determined by the Government of the Russian Federation.

4. A copy of an effective decision on disqualification shall be sent by the court that rendered it to the body authorised by the Government of the Russian Federation, or to a territorial agency of this body.

Article 32.12. Execution of the Decision on an Administrative Suspension of the Activity

1. A judgement of the judge, body or official that has ordered an administrative penalty in the form of administrative suspension of activities shall be performed by a bailiff immediately after it is issued.

2. In case of an administrative suspension of the activity, lead seals shall be put on, buildings and premises for the storage of commodities and other material values, as well as cashier's offices shall be sealed, and other measures shall also be taken in order to execute the directions pointed out in the decision on an administrative termination of the activity, necessary for the execution of an administrative punishment in the form of an administrative suspension of the activity.

   In case of an administrative suspension of the activity, no measures shall be applied which may entail an irreversible aftermath for the production process or for the functioning and security of the life support objects.

3. The administrative suspension of activities shall be terminated before the due date by the judge, body or official that has ordered an administrative penalty in the form of administrative suspension of activities, on a petition of a person pursuing entrepreneurial activities without the formation of a legal entity or of a legal entity if it is established that the circumstances serving as a ground for ordering the administrative penalty in the form of administrative suspension of activities have been eliminated. In this case, the judge, body or official that has ordered the administrative penalty in the form of administrative suspension of activities must request a statement from an official empowered under Article 28.3 of the present Code to draw up a report on an administrative offence. Upon receiving an appropriate petition of a judge the official authorised in compliance with Article 28.3 of this Code to draw up a record of an administrative offence for the purpose of preparing a statement shall check the removal of the circumstances that have served as the ground for imposing an administrative penalty in the form of the administrative suspension of activities. The statement shall be given in writing as containing evidence of the fact that the circumstances deemed ground for ordering the administrative penalty in the form of suspension of activities have been or have not been eliminated by the person pursuing entrepreneurial activities without the formation of a legal entity or by the legal entity. The statement is not binding on the judge, body or official that has ordered the administrative penalty in the form of administrative suspension of activities and it shall be assessed by the rules established by Article 26.11 of the present Code. A disagreement of the judge, body or official with the statement shall be substantiated. The petition shall be considered by the judge, body or official that has ordered the administrative penalty in the form of administrative suspension of activities within five days after being received, in the procedure envisaged by Chapter 29 of the present Code with due regard to the details established by the present article. As this is being done, summons shall be served to the person pursuing entrepreneurial activities without the formation of a legal entity or to the legal representative of the legal entity for participation in the consideration of the petition, the person/entity being entitled to provide explanations and documents.

4. After studying the submitted document, the judge, body or official that has ordered an administrative penalty in the form of administrative suspension of activities shall issue the decision on stopping the execution of the administrative punishment in the form of an administrative suspension of the activity, or on the refusal to satisfy the petition.

In the decision on the pre-schedule termination of the execution of an administrative punishment in the form of an administrative suspension of the activity shall be supplied the information stipulated in Article 29.10 of the present Code, and the date shall be named for the resumption of the activity of the person engaged in business activity without creating a legal entity, or of the legal entity, of its affiliate, representation, structural subdivision and production sector, as well as of the running of aggregates, objects, buildings or structures, of the performance of the individual kinds of activity (of works) and of rendering services.

5. Upon the expiry of the deadline fixed in the decision on the administrative suspension of activities, if execution of the administrative penalty in the form of the administrative suspension of activity is not stopped ahead of time for the grounds and in the procedure provided for by Parts 3 and 4 of this article, the official authorised in compliance with Article 28.3 of this Code to draw up a record of an administrative offence shall check the absence of the circumstances that have served as the ground for imposing the administrative offence in the form of the administrative suspension of the activity.

Where it is established on the basis of the results of an inspection held that the circumstances that have served as the grounds for imposing an administrative penalty in the form of the administrative suspension of the activity are not removed, the official authorised in compliance with Article 28.3 of this Code to draw up a record of an administrative offence may draw up a new record of the administrative offence and may take measures aimed at ensuring administrative proceedings in respect of the case in the procedure provided for by Chapter 27 of this Code.
