Partnership - World IP Day - 26th April 2010

LINKING THE WORLD THROUGH INNOVATION ....AND FOOD

The Singapore Perspective: Food & IP

- a. A two-hour public outreach with registration fee of S$20/-.
- b. Speakers included three IP practitioners and four representatives from different food companies.
- c. Idea initiated by IP Academy's Deputy Director in Feb 2010.
- d. Engagement of LES (Singapore) and WIPO (SG) in late Feb & early Mar.
- e. Marketing blurb sent immediately after venue confirmed.
- f. Partners: LES (Singapore), WIPO (SG), IPOS, SPRING
- g. Sponsors: Microsoft, Transpacific IP, Thomson Reuters.

Partnership - Issues

- 1. 'IP' and 'Academy' together does not draw attention easily from industry.
- 2. Direct financial compensation is usually insufficient for speaker or trainers.
- Commitment of speakers/trainers from partner organizations are subject to their availability and typically not high in priority.

Conclusion – Tips for Sustainability

- Marketing programme to potential participants from a business perspective depends on speakers'/trainers' profile.
- 2. Partner must also see a benefit of programme.
- 3. Weighing benefits of outreach to relevant participants against programme fee to recover costs or more.
- 4. Obtaining and acting on feedback from partners and participants to improve.
