Global Dossier Concept

ASEAN Sub-regional Workshop
September 7, 2012
Tokyo, Japan

Mark R. Powell
Lead, International Patent Technical Cooperation
Office of Policy and External Affairs
Introduction

• Recap what has been said
  – Bits and pieces
  – Automation of obsolete workflows
  – Narrow stakeholder viewpoints
  – No clear outcomes
  – Money spent – the users’ money!
Introduction

• New “Stakeholder” attitude among IPOs
  – The system is now global – Discussions have taken on a new, all-encompassing, user-centric focus
  – Focus on promoting innovation and job growth
Introduction

- Quality
  - Current “quality” discussions
  - European viewpoints
  - Worksharing advantage of the Global Dossier
  - Transparency
• IP5 WG2 focused mainly on the examiners’ toolset
• Global Dossier considers all stakeholders
• Realignment of IT efforts and inclusion of WIPO
  – Assistance to smaller offices
The Global Dossier Environment

- New look at work streams
  - Reduce duplication
  - Increase efficiencies
  - Prevent inadvertent loss of rights
Global Dossier Video

• Purpose
  – Convey the concept
  – Start discussion among stakeholders
  – Sell the concept as a clear path to a desired end state

• Content
  – Demonstrates potential features and functions in a conceptual manner – No suggestion of actual design or development activities
Global Dossier Video

• Results - Success!
  – Quickly endorsed by the IP5 Heads of Office
  – Extremely positive responses from the communities of users
  – Continued use as a vehicle for discussion and for any new ideas
What we are Doing

- WIPO on board as full partner in the initiative
- Task Force for gathering user requirements forming soon with participants from:
  - IP5 Offices
  - WIPO
  - IP5 Industry
- Realignment of IP5 and other IT efforts
- Technical analyses under way at IP5 Offices
Arigatō!
