

Panel:6

Looking forward - Finding ways to make synergies between Private Sector and the R&D Sector

Nobue Yazawa

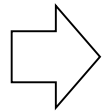

Associate Program Officer, Regional Bureau for Asia and the Pacific, WIPO

Third Regional Conference for Presidents and Vice-Presidents of Universities and Research Institutions on Creating an Enabling Intellectual Property (IP) Environment for Technology Development, Management and Commercialization
November 13 to 15, 2018

A brief introduction of the various components of the WIPO Enabling IP Environment (EIE) Project

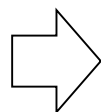

1. Inception Phase

- Country assessments
- Recruitment of Institutions
- In-Reach/Out-Reach Activities
- Refining Project Parameters

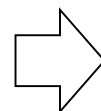

2. Organizational Phase

- Roster of Trainees
- Project charter / MoU
- Presidents' Summit
- Immersion in Spokes / Visits
- Capacity-building activities

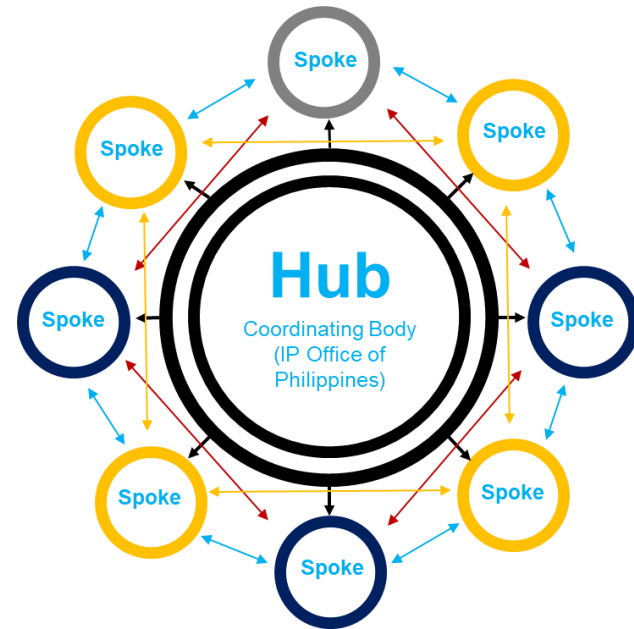

3. Implementation Phase

4. Institutional Phase

A brief introduction of the various components of the WIPO Enabling IP Environment (EIE) Project

■ Hub and Spoke Approach

■ Capacity Building

- National Workshops on IP management and Technology Commercialization
- Patent Drafting and Patent Searching Skills Development Courses
- Fellowships in Japan

A brief introduction of the various components of the WIPO Enabling IP Environment (EIE) Project

■ Supports in Technology Commercialization

- The EIE Technology for Special Attention Project (2017)
- The EIE Remote Mentorship Program(2018)

■ University Visits by international technology transfer professionals

■ Leadership Engagements

- EIE Presidents' Summit (Daejeon in 2017, Osaka in 2017, Okinawa in 2018)

Panel Discussion

To realize synergies among key actors, what can be done to improve the desired collaboration among business entities and researches?

How can governments do more to manage the risk of failure in collaborations?