

Committee on WIPO Standards (CWS)
Application Programming Interface (API) Day

hosted by the CWS API Task Force

Virtual, June 17, 2020
13:00 – 15:30 (CEST)

DRAFT PROGRAM

prepared by the International Bureau of WIPO

Venue: Online via Interprefy platform

13:00 - 13:10

Introduction and welcome address

Patrice Cousineau,
Director for Innovation (Innovation, Science and Economic Development, Canada)

13:10 - 13:30

Purpose of API TF and Standard

An outline of the newly proposed WIPO Web API Standard and the work of the CWS API Task Force.

Presenter:
Derek Spero,
Solutions Architect (Canadian Intellectual Property Office)

Q&A

13:30-14:00

API Trends

The value of APIs, where APIs are heading, and how organizations across the world are using them

Presenters:
Graham Rivers-Brown,
Deputy CTO & Chief Architect (United Kingdom Intellectual Property Office)

Steve Ferson,
Senior Manager (Deloitte)

Q&A

14:00 - 14:25

Commercial Organization API Strategy

*How the IP data industry foresees future data service and possible collaboration with IP offices and customers
levering web services, from the perspective of PatCom*

Presenter:
Mike Baycroft, CEO (IFI Claims)

Q&A

14:25 - 14:45

IP Office API Strategy

*IP Offices are making use of APIs to support their work –
IP Australia provides an insight into their transition to an API framework*

Presenter:

Josh Burns,
TDS Program Owner (IP Australia)

Q&A

14:45 - 15:20

IP Office API Implementation

IP Offices sharing case studies of successful APIs

API Data exchange project with Member States

Presenter:

Miguel Albrecht,
Director, Information Processing Services (European Patent Office)

Common Legal Status API

Presenter:

Michael Burns,
Senior Director, Innovation (IP Australia)

Q&A

15:20 – 15:30

Next Steps and Close

Young-woo Yun,
Head, Standards Section (International Bureau of WIPO)

[End of document]