Advisory Committee on Enforcement

Fourteenth Session
Geneva, September 2 to 4, 2019

RECENT ACTIVITIES OF WIPO IN THE FIELD OF BUILDING RESPECT FOR INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Document prepared by the Secretariat

1. This document summarizes the activities in the field of building respect for intellectual property (IP) undertaken by Program 17 of the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) in the period from May 2018 to April 2019. The activities were guided by the Program’s objectives defined in the 2018/2019 Program and Budget and the Development Agenda Recommendation 45. They focused on responding to Member State requests for legal and technical assistance, taking due account of Development Agenda Recommendations 1, 3, 6, 10 to 14, and 17, and on fostering cooperation with partner organizations and the private sector, in accordance with Development Agenda Recommendation 40 and in order to ensure international policy cohesion and further integration of development-oriented concerns into joint activities.

2. It is recalled that WIPO Strategic Goal VI “International Cooperation on Building Respect for IP” is a broad, cross-cutting goal which aims to create an enabling environment that promotes respect for IP in a sustainable manner and to strengthen the capacity in Member States for the effective enforcement of IP rights (IPRs), taking into account socio-economic interests and development-oriented concerns. Strategic Goal VI is supported by various WIPO Programs and many of the activities set out below benefited from close in-house cooperation, in particular with: Program 1 (Patent Law); Program 2 (Trademarks, Industrial Designs and Geographical Indications); Program 3 (Copyright and Related Rights); Program 9 (Africa, Arab, Asia and the Pacific, Latin America and the Caribbean Countries, Least Developed Countries); Program 10 (Transition and Developed Countries); Program 11 (The WIPO Academy);
3. The following sections list those activities in the field of building respect for IP that were undertaken by Program 17. They do not aim to provide an exhaustive report on all WIPO activities in this area as many other WIPO Programs equally deliver contributions to Strategic Goal VI. Section I focuses on assistance to Member States, while Section II describes the cooperation and coordination between the work of WIPO and other international governmental and non-governmental organizations (IGOs and NGOs) and the private sector. Section III covers publications and training materials in the field of building respect for IP.

4. A regular update on activities of Program 17 in the field of building respect for IP, with links to relevant programs, is made available on the WIPO website at: http://www.wipo.int/enforcement/en/activities/current.html.

I. ASSISTANCE TO MEMBER STATES: LEGISLATIVE ADVICE, TRAINING AND AWARENESS RAISING

5. In the period under review, Program 17 continued to receive numerous requests from Member States for assistance in the field of building respect for IP and the enforcement of IPRs. Requested services included legislative advice, as well as training and awareness-raising activities.

6. Regarding legislative advice, Program 17 focused on analyzing the compatibility of current or draft legislation with enforcement-related obligations under Part III of the Agreement on Trade-Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights (TRIPS Agreement), taking due account of the balances and the flexibilities incorporated in the TRIPS Agreement. WIPO provides legislative advice to Member States on demand and on a confidential basis\(^1\).

7. In addition, WIPO organized specialized national and regional Workshops, Seminars and Colloquia to comprehensively address building respect for IP\(^2\):

- Sub-Regional Workshop on Building Respect for IP, Baku, Azerbaijan, May 3 and 4, 2018: organized in cooperation with the Patent and Trademarks Office of Azerbaijan (COPAT), the objectives of the Workshop were to discuss and exchange experiences on practical issues relating to the enforcement of IPRs, and to improve the skills and knowledge level of the IPR enforcement authorities in the Central Asian countries necessary to provide fair, efficient and consistent handling and adjudication of IP cases, while taking due note of the development-oriented concerns that inform WIPO Strategic Goal VI. The Workshop was attended by around 50 participants, among them members of the judiciary, representatives of the police, the State Customs Service and representatives of right holders.

11. In addition, Program 17 undertook a pilot project to develop a Building Respect for Intellectual Property Database (BRIP Database), with the aim of assisting Member States in the coordination of voluntary measures taken in accordance with the “follow-the-money” approach to copyright infringements. The BRIP Database comprises a secure, access-controlled online platform that aggregates lists of web sites which deliberately facilitate the infringement of copyright.

III. PUBLICATIONS AND TRAINING MATERIALS

12. Program 17 published two new English-language episodes in the children’s animation series Pororo the Little Penguin, entitled Fake Sled Chaos and A New Sled Design, and undertook the dubbing of three existing Pororo cartoons into Arabic. The videos are all available on the WIPO YouTube channel.

13. Program 17 dubbed three older animations, Copyright, Patents and Trademarks, in Chinese and Arabic and made these videos available on the WIPO YouTube channel.

14. Program 17 published a Malawi video case study, which followed the journey of Malawian schoolchildren’s familiarity with copyright at school, where teachers made use of WIPO Materials on Building Respect for Copyright. The video engaged a local pop-musical celebrity, Mr. Tay Grin, who highlighted the importance of copyright in his work. Given the children’s positive reaction to the materials and to their interaction with a local musician, the video demonstrated the value of presenting the importance of respecting copyright in a practical and engaging manner. The video was published on WIPO’s YouTube Channel on September 4, 2018.

15. Program 17 created a print version of its existing awareness website on building respect for trademarks (accessible at www.respectfortrademarks.org). This resource is aimed at young people studying a range of subjects, from business studies to art and design, and offers teachers innovative ways to educate students about the importance of IPRs for both consumers and creators of a wide range of products and services.

16. WIPO has continued to develop customized versions of its training materials for law enforcement authorities and prosecutors Investigating and Prosecuting IP Crime, which was first published in 2015. The materials, which exist in Arabic, English, French and Spanish, provide
