Demo Version

eHague

The E-Filing interface has been replaced with a new version (eHague). You may access a demo of this new version from the link below, where you can see the new look and feel and use it to make a test application from start to finish.

Warning: The demo version should not be used to attempt to file real international applications, submit any confidential data or documents, or submit any real payment information.

- Make as many test applications, from start to finish, as you want.
