POLL

What territories and dependencies do you get protection in when you designate the UK IPO?

■ A: England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland (UK)

■ B: England, Wales, Scotland, Northern Ireland, the Falkland Islands and Gibraltar, as well as the two British Crown Dependencies of the Isle of Man and Jersey.

■ C: England, Wales, Scotland, Northern Ireland, the British Overseas Territory of the Falkland Islands and Gibraltar, as well as the two British Crown Dependencies of the Isle of Man and Guernsey.
Territories and Dependencies

The designation of the United Kingdom covers:

- England, Wales, Scotland, Northern Ireland, the British Overseas Territory of the Falkland Islands and Gibraltar, as well as the two British Crown Dependencies of the Isle of Man and Jersey.

- The UK WIPO membership extends to Guernsey, but they’re treated as a separate office of Origin and require a separate designation to gain protection.

- Registering a trade mark at the UK IPO only protects your brand in the UK and the Isle of Man.

Section 5

Relative grounds for refusal of registration.

- A trade mark shall not be registered if it is identical with an earlier trade mark and the goods or services for which the trade mark is applied for are identical with the goods or services for which the earlier trade mark is protected.
- Notification System.
- 2 months to consider any earlier rights raised.
- Mark proceeds to publication and notifications are issued if no response.

Classification

When classifying your goods and services the main points to remember:

- Retail and wholesale services
- Wide terms and unclear terms
- Using the term "Providing a website" outside of classes 38 and 42
- Caught By Class

Extensions of time requests (EOT)

If your trade mark has not yet been registered, you can first speak with your examiner to discuss an extension of time.

- The registry can grant an extension of time for as long as they see fit. However, UK IPO examination practice is to provide 2 months at a time.
- The request must be submitted in writing, and only where the application has not been published.
- Extensions requests from a WIPO representative.
- TM9R – if a deadline has been missed.

Refusals

Following the examination, if you are unable to find a way to overcome the objection:

- Refusal letter (Total/Partial)
- Evidence of Acquired distinctiveness
- Peer Review Group
- Request for a statement of grounds for refusal
- Divisions

Madrid System Case Study Highlight: Panasonic, Branding for Further Growth and Greater Value

October 5, 2021

We continue with our highlights of key case studies giving you practical insights on how companies across various industries use the Madrid System globally to their advantage. Our latest study focuses on Panasonic, the renowned Japanese electronics corporation.

Panasonic provides a wide range of products and services that are used in consumers’ daily lives worldwide. These include home appliances, the electronic components used in them, housing and various services.

With more than a hundred years of experience, the company has been thoroughly committed to creating a better life for its users under the brand slogan of “A Better Life, A Better World”.

Over the years, Panasonic introduced several business brands to achieve further growth and greater brand value in each area of business. In 2008, the corporation changed its name from the Matsushita Electric Industrial Co., Ltd to the Panasonic Corporation, consolidating its brand identity.

Discover how, with such a varied portfolio and an expansion strategy geared internationally, Panasonic uses the Madrid System to simplify the administrative procedures and greatly reduce costs.
