[Rule 13.4, continued]

(i) the name and address of the industrial property office making the request, of the authorized party, of the certified party or of the requesting party;

(ii) the name and address of the depositor;

(iii) in the case of Rule 13.1, the name of the original applicant for the relevant patent and the date and number of the application or, where a patent has been granted, the name of the original applicant and the date and number of the grant;

(iv) in the case of Rule 13.3, the indications referred to in (iii) and the name and address of the industrial property office which has made the declaration referred to in Rule 13.3(a) or the communication referred to in Rule 13.3(c) (i).

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), any internationally recognized depositary authority may agree with any industrial property office that the request and the declaration referred to in Rule 13.1 shall or may be in a given language other than English or French.

(c) Any release of a sample of a deposited microorganism shall be subject to compliance with the provisions of the applicable national law concerning health or the environment.

(d) The internationally recognized depositary authority having effected the release of the sample shall promptly notify the depositor in writing of that fact, as well as of the date on which the release was effected, and of the name and address of the industrial property office, of the authorized party, of the certified party or of the requesting party, to which the sample was released.

(e) The release of samples referred to in Rule 13.1 shall be free of charge. Where the release of samples is made under Rule 13.2 or 13.3, any fee payable under Rule 14.1(a)(iii) shall be chargeable to the depositor, to the authorized party, to the certified party or to the requesting party, and shall be paid before or at the time of making the request for release.
