

Mr. Erling Vestergaard

IP Enforcement Expert, European Observatory on Infringements of Intellectual Property Rights (EUIPO), Spain

Erling Vestergaard has been a Danish lawyer for almost 34 years, more than 20 of those serving as a Danish prosecutor, and has since 2006 specialized in intellectual property crime.

From November 2014 he has worked for the European Intellectual Property Office where he has taken a special interest in Internet related issues and the impact of new disruptive and transformative technologies.

Mr. Marco Musumeci

Programme Coordinator, United Nations Interregional Crime and Justice Research Institute (UNICRI), Switzerland

Marco Musumeci is a Programme Management Officer at the United Nations Interregional Crime and Justice Research Institute (UNICRI).

He currently manages a portfolio of several projects focused on counterfeiting and organized crime, with activities ranging from research and public/private cooperation to the design of training and awareness materials.

He holds a Masters' degree in criminology and international criminal policy and he is co-author of several UNICRI publications.