Notifications Concerning Treaties Administered by WIPO in the Field of Copyright

Berne Convention

Declaration of Continued Application of the Berlin Act (1908) and Accession to the Paris Act (1971)

NAMIBIA

The Government of Namibia deposited, on September 21, 1993, a declaration stating that the Berne Convention for the Protection of Literary and Artistic Works of September 9, 1886, as revised at Berlin on November 13, 1908, and completed by the Protocol adopted at Berne on March 20, 1914, with the reservation, made pursuant to Article 27 of the said Convention so revised, as concerns works which have not fallen into the public domain in the country of origin, substituting for Article 18 thereof, Article 14 of the Berne Convention signed on September 9, 1886, and paragraph 4 of the Final Protocol to that Convention as amended by the Additional Act of Paris of May 4, 1896, continues to be applicable in respect of Namibia.

The said declaration also states that Namibia accedes to the Berne Convention for the Protection of Literary and Artistic Works of September 9, 1886, as revised at Paris on July 24, 1971, and amended on September 28, 1979 (Paris Act).

The Paris Act (1971) of the Berne Convention will enter into force, with respect to Namibia, on December 24, 1993.

Namibia will belong to Class IX for the purpose of establishing its contribution towards the budget of the Berne Union.

Berne Notification No. 151, of September 24, 1993.

New Member of the Berne Union

JAMAICA

The Government of Jamaica deposited, on September 28, 1993, its instrument of accession to the Berne Convention for the Protection of Literary and Artistic Works, with the declaration that the Government of Jamaica avails itself of the faculties provided for in Articles II and III of the Appendix to the said Convention.

Jamaica has not heretofore been a member of the International Union for the Protection of Literary and Artistic Works ("Berne Union"), founded by the Berne Convention.

The Berne Convention, as revised at Paris on July 24, 1971, and amended on September 28, 1979, will enter into force, with respect to Jamaica, on January 1, 1994. On that date, Jamaica will become a member of the Berne Union.

Berne Notification No. 152, of October 1, 1993.

Treaty on the International Registration of Audiovisual Works

Ratification

CHILE

The Government of Chile deposited, on September 29, 1993, its instrument of ratification of the Treaty on the International Registration of Audiovisual Works, adopted at Geneva on April 18, 1989.

The said Treaty will enter into force, with respect to Chile, on December 29, 1993.

United Arab Emirates. In July 1993, the International Bureau prepared and sent to the government authorities, at their request, comments on the draft implementing regulations under the recently promulgated Copyright Law.

Asia and the Pacific

Training Courses, Seminars and Meetings

WIPO Fourth High-Level Meeting of Government Officials of South Pacific Countries on Cooperation in the Field of Intellectual Property (Fiji). From July 12 to 14, 1993, WIPO organized in Suva, in cooperation with the Government of Fiji, the WIPO Fourth High-Level Meeting of Government Officials of South Pacific Countries on Cooperation in the Field of Intellectual Property. The Meeting was opened by Mr. Kelemedi Bulewa, Attorney-General and Minister of Justice. The purpose of the Meeting was to exchange experience and information on legislation, administration and international cooperation in the fields of industrial property, technology transfer and copyright. Eleven government officials from six countries of the South Pacific region (Federated States of Micronesia, Papua New Guinea, Samoa, Solomon Islands, Tonga, Vanuatu) and eight government officials from Fiji also participated in the Meeting. In addition, five officials from the South Pacific Forum secretariat, the Copyright Council of New Zealand and the University of the South Pacific also participated as observers. Papers were presented by two WIPO consultants from Australia and the United Kingdom, and by three WIPO officials. Country papers giving the present status of intellectual property protection were presented by representatives of each of the above-mentioned participating countries. The participants in the Meeting concluded that the strengthening of the intellectual property system would greatly contribute to the technological, economic, cultural and social development of the countries of the region and expressed their interest in cooperating with WIPO, in particular in the establishment and updating of national intellectual property legislation.

Assistance With Training, Legislation and Modernization of Administration

Bhutan. In July 1993, at the invitation of the Government of Bhutan, two WIPO officials undertook the first WIPO mission to Thimphu. They had discussions with ministers and other government and United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) officials, as well as with representatives of the private sector, on the advantages of establishing a legal and administrative system for the protection of intellectual property rights in Bhutan and of possible WIPO assistance. They also discussed Bhutan's possible accession to the WIPO Convention and other WIPO-administered treaties.

Also in July 1993, following the above-mentioned mission, the International Bureau prepared and sent to the government authorities, at their request, a draft industrial property law and a draft law on copyright and neighboring rights.

China. In May and July 1993, a WIPO official visited Beijing to discuss with government officials the preparation and printing of a publication commemorating the 20th anniversary of cooperation between China and WIPO.

Fiji. In July 1993, three WIPO officials and a WIPO consultant from Australia held discussions in Suva with government and UNDP officials and representatives of the private sector on the upgrading of the intellectual property legislation and administration of Fiji to promote, in particular, technology transfer and research and development activities. Copyright questions were also discussed. The mission was partly funded by the UNDP-financed intercountry project.

Japan. In July 1993, a new funds-in-trust agreement (for 1993-94) for WIPO's development cooperation activities in the field of copyright was concluded between the Government of Japan and WIPO.
