EXPERIENCE IN INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Some 10 years' experience in advising on the resolution and legal merits of intellectual property disputes, particularly those involving the Internet, software and digital media. Disputes resolved through litigation, arbitration and mediation involve trade marks, copyright and database rights, as well as jurisdiction and other issues relevant to e-commerce businesses.

Experienced in litigation before courts of first instance and all appellate levels in the UK, as well as in trade mark office proceedings before the UK Intellectual Property Office and OHIM.

EXPERIENCE WITH RESPECT TO DOMAIN NAMES

Successfully defended three Legal Rights Objections in the first round of New gTLDs.

Successfully defended three Community Objections brought by the "Independent Objector" in the first round of New gTLDs.

Drafted first ever Nominet DRS Complaint to determine whether the registration of domain names combining "replica" with a brand name was abusive.

Represented large multi-national businesses in proceedings in the Intellectual Property Enterprise Court, the High Court and the Court of Appeal for recovery of domain names, both in their own right and as part of larger commercial disputes.

Negotiated settlements of hundreds of domain name disputes via pre-action correspondence.
