
WIPO LIST OF NEUTRALS

BIOGRAPHICAL DATA

Richard G. LYON
Attorney and Dispute Resolution Professional
Bozeman, MT
United States of America

Nationality: American

EDUCATIONAL AND PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

A.B., Haverford College, 1968;
J.D., Harvard University, 1971.

Bar Admissions:

Admitted to practice in New York and Texas and before the Supreme Court of the United States, four United States Courts of Appeals, and many United States District Courts. Qualified as a mediator.

Professional Associations:

Dallas Bar Association, Texas State Bar Association, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, World Intellectual Property Organization (arbitration panel roster). AV rated by Martindale-Hubbell.

LANGUAGES

English

PRESENT POSITION

Attorney and Dispute Resolution Professional.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE BEFORE PRESENT POSITION

Attorney, Spencer Crain Cabbage Healy & McNamara PLLC, Dallas, Texas, March 2010 – April 2012;

January 29, 2020

34, chemin des Colombettes, 1211 Geneva 20, Switzerland
T +41 22 338 82 47 F +41 22 740 37 00 E arbitr.neutrals@wipo.int W www.wipo.int/amc

Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP, Dallas, Texas, 1995-2009;
Member of Corporate and Litigation departments in the Dallas office of a 900-lawyer worldwide law firm. Practice focuses on:

- Acquisition, exploitation, and sale of intellectual capital;
- Corporate acquisitions and divestitures and strategic alliances;
- Business process and information technology outsourcing;
- Procurement, sales and distribution, and distributor relations matters;
- Counseling on privacy, information technology, and internet business issues;
- Trademark and patent litigation support and strategy.

Johnson & Gibbs/Johnson & Wortley, P.C., Dallas, Texas, 1989-1995;
Member of corporate department in a large Texas-based regional law firm. Practice focus similar to Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher, also chairman of the firm's international practice group 1993-1995.

Ericsson, Inc., Greenwich, Connecticut / Richardson, Texas, 1982-1989;
Vice President and General Counsel of the North American subsidiary of the Ericsson Group of Sweden, the world's largest supplier of mobile telephone systems, 1982–1985, Counsel, with principal responsibility for legal and governmental affairs for U.S. and Canadian telecommunications business, 1985 – 1989;

Consultant to legal department of Metropolitan Transportation Authority, Brooklyn, New York 1981;

- Prepared analysis of the organization of the legal department and management of litigation. The MTA adopted my recommendation on reorganization of the torts division of the legal department.
- Assisted on organization of legal department role in procurement process and assisted on major procurement matters.

Sullivan & Cromwell, New York, New York, 1971 - 1981;
Associate attorney in the litigation group of this Wall Street law firm, handling securities, antitrust, and general commercial litigation, with special focus on accountancy and accountant's liability.

AREAS OF SPECIALIZATION

Corporate and corporate finance, joint ventures, distribution, technology transactions, licensing, telecommunications, trademarks, Internet, international, antitrust.
