Madrid Pendency Rates
Key Figures as of 30 June 2019

International Applications

![Graph showing international applications pendency rates over years and months]

Renewals

![Graph showing renewals pendency rates over years and months]

Subsequent designations

![Graph showing subsequent designations pendency rates over years and months]
Modifications

- The pendency rates are for transactions with no irregularities.
- The pendency is calculated from the date a document is received at WIPO to the date it is inscribed in the International Register.
- Monthly average is the monthly rolling average during the preceding six-month period.
- The days represented on the vertical axis are calendar days.

Decisions

Corrections

Notes:
- The pendency rates are for transactions with no irregularities.
- The pendency is calculated from the date a document is received at WIPO to the date it is inscribed in the International Register.
- Monthly average is the monthly rolling average during the preceding six-month period.
- The days represented on the vertical axis are calendar days.