

Ronald E. Myrick

President
International Association for the Protection of Intellectual Property (AIPPI)
United States of America

Mr. Ronald E. Myrick is a partner at the law firm of Finnegan, Henderson, Farabow, Garrett & Dunner, LLP. He holds a Juris Doctor (JD) Degree, cum laude, from Loyola University of Chicago Law School. Prior to assuming his present position, he was the Chief Intellectual Property Counsel for General Electric Company and President of Monogram Licensing, Inc. Earlier he was a Principal in the law firm of Fish & Richardson P.C., following being Vice President, Assistant Secretary and Assistant General Counsel of Digital Equipment Corporation. Mr. Myrick is active in various industries and bar associations. He is Past President of the American Intellectual Property Law Association (AIPLA) and a Fellow of the Association. He is Past President of Intellectual Property Owners (IPO) Association and is a member of the Amicus Brief Committee of IPO. He is also President of AIPPI. He is Vice-Chair of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) Commission on Intellectual Property and is Chair of the Intellectual Property Committee of the United States Council for International Business (USCIB). Formerly, he was on the Executive Committee of the Association of Corporate Patent Counsel. He is a past member of the Council of the Intellectual Property Law Section of the American Bar Association (ABA) and is currently Chair of Division V. Mr. Myrick was selected by his peers for inclusion in the 2005-2006 edition of Best Lawyers in America[®]. Mr. Myrick was a charter member of the USPTO's Patent Public Advisory Committee and was nominated by the U.S. to the World Trade Organization (WTO) Dispute Settlement Roster. Mr. Myrick is also on the AAA list of neutrals as an arbitrator and mediator and is on the National Patent Advisory Council. He was an Adjunct Professor of European Union Law at Suffolk University Law School. Mr. Myrick has published a multi-volume treatise relating to the subject of international litigation. He has lectured at meetings and seminars organized by such organizations as the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO), IPO, AIPLA, ABA, PLI and the State Bar of Texas, covering a wide range of topics.

Mr. Myrick focuses his practice on counseling, IP asset management, strategy setting, litigation management, dispute resolution, quality methodology applied to legal services, transactions and licensing, and IP issues relating to international relations. He has been an expert witness on corporate IP practice, duty of care, and the interpretation of complex patent licenses in the telecommunications industry dealing with mobile phones