

Megan Deane
Deputy Managing Director
National Export Import Bank
Kingston
Jamaica

Megan Deane has been the Deputy Managing Director of the National Export Import Bank of Jamaica (EXIM Bank) since December 2006, with specific responsibility for Trade Finance & Risk Management; Strategic & Business Continuity Planning; Marketing and Compliance.

A highly qualified professional, Ms. Deane has over twenty years experience in development banking, credit assessment, financial structuring and strategic planning.

Ms. Deane holds an undergraduate honors degree in management from the University of the West Indies; is a Canadian Commonwealth Scholar with an MBA from the University of Ottawa; participated in 1996 in the U.S. International Visitor Programme and also spent a year at Boston University in 1998/99 as a Hubert Humphrey-Fulbright Fellow in Finance.

She is the EXIM Bank's representative to the Management Committee of the Berne Union, the International Union of Credit and Investment Insurers; President of the Jamaica Fulbright-Humphrey Alumni Association; a Board member of Nuttall Hospital and recipient of a 20 year award from the Private Sector Organisation of Jamaica as being an outstanding individual and Council member.