EP*[Continued]*Waiver of power of attorney:⁷

Has the Office waived the requirement that a separate power of attorney be submitted?

Particular instances in which a separate power of attorney is required:

Yes⁸

If necessary in the circumstances of a particular case, for example:

(1) where a procedural act is performed by a purported agent who is not the agent of record, unless:

- the purported agent belongs to the same office as the agent of record; or
- both the purported agent and the agent of record are employees of the applicant (or, if there is more than one applicant, of the common representative).

(2) in case of doubt as to whether the agent or common representative is entitled to act.

Has the Office waived the requirement that a copy of a general power of attorney be submitted?

Particular instances in which a copy of a general power of attorney is required:

Yes⁸

If necessary in the circumstances of a particular case, for example:

(1) where a procedural act is performed by a purported agent who is not the agent of record, unless:

- the purported agent belongs to the same office as the agent of record; or
- both the purported agent and the agent of record are employees of the applicant (or, if there is more than one applicant, of the common representative).

(2) in case of doubt as to whether the agent or common representative is entitled to act.

⁷ See OJ EPO 5/2010, page 335.⁸ Waivers of powers of attorney do not apply (PCT Rule 90.4(e) and 90.5(d)) where the agent or common representative submits any notice of withdrawal during the international phase (PCT Rule 90*bis*.1 to 90*bis*.4; see also International Phase, paragraph 11.048).
