Questionnaire Regarding the Implementation of the Patent Law Treaty (PLT)

January 2015

This questionnaire is intended to gather information on how the PLT is implemented at the national/regional level, and to share such information with current and future PLT Contracting Parties, as well as with patent practitioners and the public.

The national and regional patent offices of the PLT Contracting States are invited to complete this questionnaire.

The completed questionnaire should be returned by any of the following means:

- e-mail : plt.forum@wipo.int
- facsimile : +41-22-338-6830
- mail : WIPO, 34, chemin des Colombettes, 1211 Geneva, Switzerland

Q1  Filing date

Q1-1 For the purpose of obtaining a filing date, an applicant may file an application on paper or "as otherwise permitted by the Office". If your Office accepts applications filed in a form or by a means other than on paper, for the purpose of the filing date (for example, on-line filing), please provide a brief explanation regarding the acceptable form or means, and describe whether such form or means, for the purpose of the filing date, are different from the form or means applicable to applications accepted by your Office for the purpose of processing the application after according the filing date.
[Reference: PLT Article 5(1)(a)]

A1-1 An application for a patent can be filed online though the CIPO website, by fax, or by submitting electronic media. Acceptable electronic media are 3.5 inch diskette, CD-ROM, CD-R, DVD, and DVD-R. Documents, other than sequence listings, submitted online or on electronic media are accepted in TIFF and PDF format, or in a format viewable using "Stellent Quick View Plus 8.0.0", provided that it is replaced by a document in TIFF or PDF format. Sequence listings can initially be provided in TIFF, PDF or ASCII format but if not in ASCII, they must be replaced with an ASCII document. These forms and means are equally acceptable for filing an application as well as for processing the application after according a filing date.

Q1-2 Does your Office accept a drawing as the element referred to as "a part which on the face of it appears to be a description" in PLT Article 5(1)(a)(iii)?

Q2  Representation

Q2-1 In addition to the procedures referred to in PLT Article 7(2)(a) and (b), are there any procedures before the Office that an applicant, owner or other interested person may carry out himself without, for example, a local representative? If yes, please list those procedures.
[Reference: PLT Article 7(2)]

A2-1 If an applicant is the inventor and no transfer of the application has been recorded, the applicant (or the common representative, if there are joint applicants) may carry out any procedure himself or herself without a local representative. In any other case, an applicant (or the common representative) may carry out himself or herself any of the following procedures without a local representative: filing an application and paying the application fee, paying maintenance fees, requesting national phase entry, filing a small entity declaration, reinstating an application that is deemed abandoned for failure to pay a maintenance fee, requesting a recordal of a transfer, requesting a change in name, submitting reference to a previously filed application, submitting an addition to the specification and drawings, and participating in an interview with the Office staff. An owner or other interested person may carry out himself or herself any procedure without a local representative.

Q2-2 Where a single power of attorney relating to more than one application or patent of the same person is filed, does your Office require that a separate copy of the single power of attorney be filed for each application and patent?
[Reference: PLT Rule 7(2)(b)]

A2-2 ☐ Yes ☑ No

Q3  Forms and Means of Communications

Q3-1 Does your Office permit the filing of communications by telegraph, teleprinter, telefacsimile or other similar means of transmittal? If yes, does your Office require that the original of such communication, accompanied by a letter identifying the earlier transmission, be filed on paper?
[Reference: PLT Rule 8(2)(c)]

A3-1 ☐ The filing of communications by telegraph, teleprinter, telefacsimile etc. is not permitted

☐ The filing of communications by telegraph, teleprinter, telefacsimile etc. is permitted, and the original of the communications by telegraph, teleprinter, telefacsimile etc. is required

☑ The filing of communications by telegraph, teleprinter, telefacsimile etc. is permitted, and the original of the communications by telegraph, teleprinter, telefacsimile etc. is not required.
Of this list, only the filing of communications by tele facsimile is permitted.

Q4  Relief in Respect of Time Limits

Q4-1 Which form of relief in respect of time limits does your Office provide?
[Reference: PLT Article 11(1), (2) and (4)]

A4-1 ☑ Extension of time limits requested prior to the expiration of the time limit
   Period of extension: discretionary, depends upon circumstances.......................
   Amount of fee: $200.00...........................................................................................

   Note that PLT Article 11 has no application in Canada since there are no time limits fixed by the Office. Extensions of time are, however, available under certain circumstances to many time limits fixed by the legislation.

☐ Extension of time limits requested after the expiration of the time limit
   Time limit to file a request for extension: .................................................................
   .................................................................................................................................
   Time limit to comply with the unfulfilled requirement: ............................................
   .................................................................................................................................
   Amount of fee: ...........................................................................................................
Q4-2 Which actions are excluded from the relief as described in A4-1?
[Reference: PLT Article 11(3) and Rule 12(5)]

A4-2 No extensions of time are available for the following actions: complying with a notice requiring a translation of a description or a previously filed application, paying the application fee, requesting priority, paying maintenance fees for applications, requesting the addition to a specification or drawing, requesting restoration of priority, requesting examination and paying the fee for examination, paying the final fee, providing the original application number required to file a divisional application, providing the name of the international depositary authority, requesting the Commissioner to furnish a sample biological deposit to an independent expert, requesting corrections, paying maintenance fees for patents, requesting the reversal of the deemed expiry of a patent, delivering a counterstatement in abuse of rights cases, requesting reinstatement, entering national phase in Canada, and paying the additional fee in respect of late national phase entry.

Q5 Reinstatement of Rights

Q5-1 Under which circumstance does your Office reinstate the rights of the applicant or owner as referred to in PLT Article 12? In addition, please provide a brief explanation of the applicable standard.
[Reference: PLT Article 12(1)]

A5-1 ☒ Failure to comply with the time limit occurred in spite of due care required by the circumstances having been taken

☐ Failure to comply with the time limit was unintentional

In general, all that is required to reinstate the rights of an applicant or owner is a request for reinstatement, compliance with the requirements in respect of which the time limit applied and payment of a fee. However, in cases of failure to pay maintenance fees or failure to request examination (when reinstatement if requested after 6 months from the due date to request examination), the Commissioner must determine that the failure occurred in spite of the due care required by the circumstances having been taken in order for reinstatement to occur.

Q5-2 What is the time limit for making a request for reinstatement of rights?
[Reference: PLT Rule 13(2)]

A5-2 For applications, 12 months after the day on which the application is deemed abandoned. For failure to pay a maintenance fee for a patent, 12 months after 6 months after the due date.

Q5-3 Does your Office require a fee to be paid? If yes, please indicate the amount.
[Reference: PLT Article 12(3)]

A5-3 ☒ Yes Amount: $200.00

☐ No

Q5-4 Which actions are excluded from the reinstatement of rights?
[Reference: PLT Article 12(2) and Rule 13(3)]

A5-4 Requests for reinstatement under PLT Article 12(1) and time limits referred to in PLT Articles 13(1), (2) or (3).
Q6  Restoration of Priority Rights Where the Filing of the Subsequent Application was Delayed

Q6-1 Under which circumstance does your Office restore the right of priority where the subsequent application was not filed within the priority period?
[Reference: PLT Article 13(2)]

A6-1  ■ Failure to file the subsequent application within the priority period occurred in spite of due care required by the circumstances having been taken

[X] Failure to file the subsequent application within the priority period was unintentional

Q6-2 In order to restore the right of priority, what is the time limit within which the subsequent application shall be filed?
[Reference: PLT Rule 14(4)]

A6-2 Two months from the filing date on which the priority period expired.

Q6-3 Does your Office require a fee to be paid? If yes, please indicate the amount.
[Reference: PLT Article 13(4)]

A6-3 No................................................................................................................................................

Q7  Restoration of Priority Rights Where the Filing of a Copy of the Earlier Application was Delayed

Q7-1 In order to restore the right of priority where a copy of the earlier application was not filed within the time limit, does your Office require a declaration or other evidence in support of the request for restoration of priority rights?
[Reference: PLT Article 13(3) and Rule 14(6)(b)]

A7-1  [X] Yes  ■ No

Q7-2 Where the filing date of a copy of the earlier application was delayed (for example, a copy of the earlier application has not been filed within 16 months from the priority date), in order to enjoy restoration of priority right, what is the time limit within which such delayed copy of the earlier application shall be filed?
[Reference: PLT Rule 14(6)(b)]

A7-2 Three months from the date on which the person who made the request is provided with that copy by the Office with which the earlier application was filed..............................................................................................

Q7-3 Does your Office require a fee to be paid? If yes, please indicate the amount.
