

Iceland
(Icelandic Intellectual Property Office (ISIPO))

The information accessible via the website provided in item (i) does not need to be updated. Please note that links in items (ii)-(iv) were either not available or the notification “page not found” was displayed. There have not been any changes in the Icelandic patent legal framework since 1 July 2018 that require revision of the information contained under items (ii) and (iv). However, the name of the Office was changed on 1 July 2019, cf. Act No. 32/2019, to the Icelandic Intellectual Property Office (ISIPO) (was the Icelandic Patent Office / Einkaleyfastofan). The name of the Office might be reflected in these documents and thus might need to be revised.
