

渋谷 高弘

株式会社 日本経済新聞社 編集委員

1990年入社。IT（情報技術）業界などの担当記者を経て編集委員。2002年～05年、「発明対価 200 億円判決」で注目された青色発光ダイオード（LED）特許訴訟を追跡報道した。知的財産分野の取材経験は約 20 年に及ぶ。主な著書に『特許は会社のものか』（日本経済新聞社）『中韓産業スパイ』（日経プレミアシリーズ）『IP ランドスケープ経営戦略』（日本経済新聞出版社）がある。19 年より日経電子版読者向けニュースレター「Nikkei Briefing リーガルのつぼ」を執筆中。

Takahiro Shibuya (Mr.)

Senior Staff Writer

Nikkei Inc.

Prior to assuming the current position of Senior Staff Writer, Mr Shibuya has worked as a journalist specialising in Information Technologies and other industries since he joined Nikkei Inc. in 1990. His notable media coverage includes three-year-long investigative coverage from 2002 on the famous patent dispute on the blue light-emitting diode (LED) between the creator and former employer which resulted in 20 billion yen settlement for the invention from 2002. He has over 20 years of experience in reporting IP issues. He is also the author of ‘Does company own patent?’* (Nikkei Inc.), ‘Industrial Spies from China and Korea’* (Nikkei Premier Series) and ‘IP Landscape Management Strategy’* (Nikkei Business Publications, Inc.). Since 2019, he writes ‘Nikkei Briefing: the legal perspectives’* for subscribers.

*Tentative translation