Key issues

- Objectives
- Subject matter
- Beneficiaries
- Scope of protection
- Exceptions and limitations
- Relationship with public domain
- Definition of misappropriation

Objectives

- Simple, direct and efficient wording
- IP-related objectives
- Objectives v. operative language (mechanism)
- Link between objectives and substantive provisions
- Redundancies with Principles/Preamble/Introduction section

Subject matter

- Placement of definition
- Eligibility criteria
 - Divergent views on specific wording
 - Reference to a time period
 - Necessity to have them

Beneficiaries

- Beneficiaries beyond IPLCs (nations?)
- Role of a competent national authority
- Reference to elements that further qualify beneficiaries (criteria of eligibility)

Scope of protection

- The current options
 - Flexibility for States to determine scope
 - The tiered approach

The tiered approach

Different kinds or levels of rights or measures would be available to rights holders depending on the nature and characteristics of the subject matter, the level of control retained by the beneficiaries and its degree of diffusion.

Scope of protection

- The current options
 - Flexibility for States to determine scope
 - The tiered approach
 - Appropriate determination of the tiers
 - Quality, level of control, degree of diffusion
 - Practicality and legal implications of the proposed tiers

Exceptions and limitations

- General exceptions
 - Test to be applied at national level when developing limitations and exceptions
 - Could include elements of the “classic” three-step test and moral-right components
 - Two alternative sets of conditions

Exceptions and limitations

- Specific exceptions
 - Kinds of exceptions that should be allowed
 - Redundancies
- Tiered approach to exceptions?
 - Various degrees of excepted acts mirror various kinds of subject matter and the tiered rights applied to them
- Incidental use in Article 8 on sanctions

Relationship with public domain

- Definition introduced at IGC 27
- “Publicly available” definition in Use of Terms section
 - Relevance in the TCEs context?
- Challenges in trying to define the public domain
- Is a definition necessary?

Definition of misappropriation

- Reference to the concept but no definition
- There are definitions in the TK and GRs texts
- Consider providing appropriate definition
- Is a definition necessary?

Other issues

- Preamble/Introduction
- Use of terms
- Administration of rights/interests
- Term of protection
- Formalities
- Sanctions, remedies and exercise of rights
- Transitional measures
- Relationship with other international agreements
- National treatment
- Transboundary cooperation
- Capacity building and awareness raising

Discussion and Closing Remarks
