We are recruiting and expect many more to join.
Help us build the Creators Platform!

With the support of all creative industry stakeholders and partners from the public and private sector, the Creators Platform, a free to use online application, will provide factual and objective information to raise awareness about creators’ rights.

The multi-lingual Creators Platform will include videos featuring well-known creators and useful information on rights management and related process, self-paced online courses with the option to obtain a certificate of attendance, and readily available information on legal and business questions related to creators’ rights.

The Creators Platform will be widely available on third party applications, devices, information sources and services, through dedicated agreements and an Application Programming Interface (API).

Creators will be able to establish a free account with the Creators’ Platform by becoming a Friend of WIPO for Creators through a simple web-based registration or by downloading the app.

Starting with music, the Creators Platform will progressively expand to cover all creative sectors, including literature, audiovisual and visual arts.

Our ambition for 2022

WIPO for Creators is developing the Creators Platform in close collaboration with WIPO for Creators partners and with project management and content delivery support from Manyone Ltd. In parallel, we are seeking sponsors from the public and private sector to secure the necessary support and funding.

Our fundraising ambition for 2022 is CHF 2,3 million to build the Creators Platform's initial Minimum Viable Product (MVP) targeted at creators in the music industry.

The work of WIPO for Creators Consortium contributes to the implementation of key UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and WIPO for Creators partners’ Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) activities.

WIPO for Creators’ mission is to raise awareness and increase knowledge of creators’ rights and related management practices, promoting recognition and fair reward for all creators regardless of their geographical, cultural or economic conditions.

SDG 4 – Quality Education

The Creators Platform, an online application to educate creators in all industries, including music, literature, audiovisual, dramatic arts and visual arts, is a WIPO for Creators flagship project that will allow any creator around the world to become a life-long learner and acquire the industry knowledge and practical skills required to make a living in the creative industries.

SDG 8 – Decent Work and Economic Growth

WIPO for Creators aims to empower creators with the necessary information and knowledge to take informed business decisions so that they are recognized and remunerated for their work. This will help bolster creators and creative industries’ potential to contribute to economic growth and sustainable development.

SDG 9 – Industry, Innovation and Infrastructure

With the support of 13 leading international industry federations, members and sponsors from the public and private sectors, WIPO for Creators is developing the Creators Platform, an online application to be available on any devices and third party services to promote creators’ rights awareness. This will contribute to improving rights data flow and management across the creative industry value chain to the benefit of creators, publishers, producers, intermediaries, online platforms and other distributors.

SDG 17 – Partnerships for the Goals

WIPO for Creators is a public-private partnership founded in 2020 by the World Intellectual Property Organization and the Music Rights Awareness Foundation. It is open to membership and sponsorship by stakeholders who adhere to and wish to support its purposes. By supporting WIPO for Creators, partners contribute to the implementation of SDGs and express their Corporate Social Responsibility commitments.
Music Rights Awareness Foundation (MRAF)

Founded by successful music industry champions Max Martin, Björn Ulvaeus and Niclas Molinder, the Music Rights Awareness Foundation is an apolitical foundation that works to increase knowledge of music rights worldwide. Through education and support, MRAF helps music creators to take control of their rights and be able to live on their music - regardless of economical, geographical and cultural conditions. Their vision is for all music creators to be compensated fairly for the music they share with the world.

World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO)

The World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) is the global forum for intellectual property policy, services, information and cooperation. A specialized agency of the United Nations, WIPO assists its 193 member states in developing a balanced international IP legal framework to meet society’s evolving needs. It provides business services for obtaining IP rights in multiple countries and resolving disputes. It delivers capacity-building programs to help developing countries benefit from using IP and it provides free access to unique knowledge banks of IP information.
