

APPENDIX E

ST.36 COMPATIBILITY FORM

Version 1.0, adopted on March 22, 2007

PURPOSE

1. WIPO Standard ST.36, Recommendation for the Processing of Patent Information Using XML (Extensible Markup Language), was first promulgated in 2001. Since then, a number of Offices have adopted it extensively in their operations. Of those Offices, there are some that wish to achieve a degree of compatibility between WIPO Standards ST.36 and ST.66. The preferred method for doing so is specified in this Appendix.

2. Offices implementing WIPO Standard ST.66, that have not yet adopted WIPO Standard ST.36, are advised to NOT use the methods in this Appendix. Instead, they should use WIPO Standard ST.66 as described in the main body of this standard. In particular, name and address content models in WIPO Standard ST.66, based as they are on widely-used industry standards, are preferred over the corresponding models in WIPO Standard ST.36.

ST.36 CONTENT MODELS

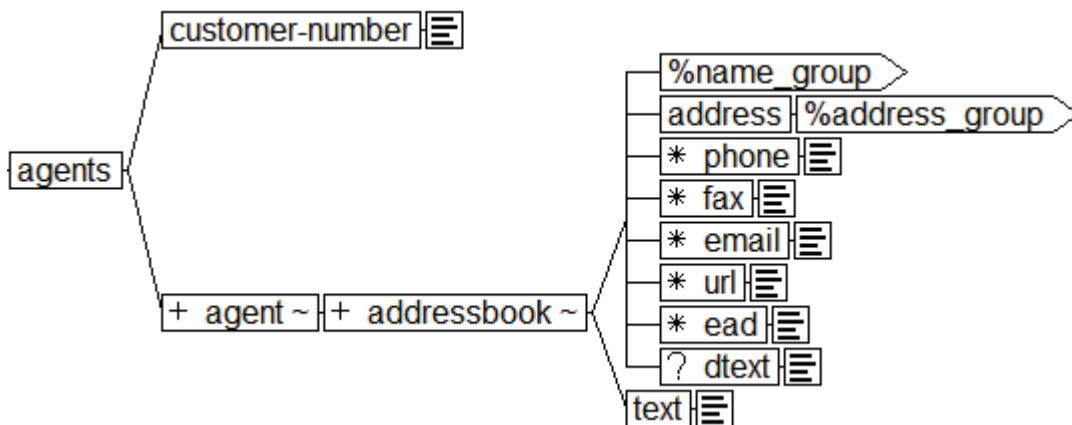

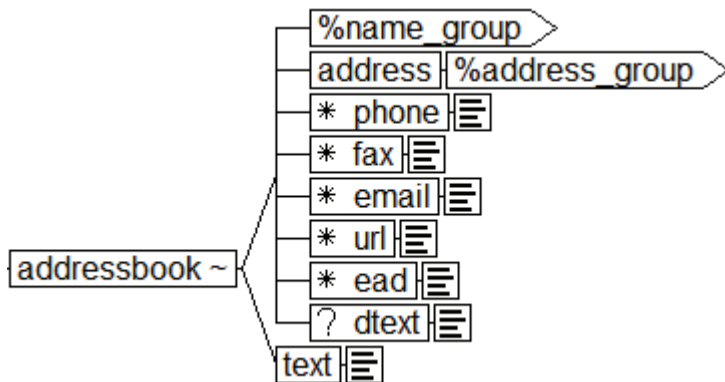

3. The content models below from among the international common elements (ICE) of WIPO Standard ST.36 are suggested as the primary candidates for inclusion in WIPO Standard ST.66 as replacements for their corresponding content models.

4. In the following section, an XML Schema fragment is provided for each content model for use in the import process.

IMPORT

5. Combine these ST.36 content models with ST.66 using the XML Schema `import` operation. For each content model you wish to use, create a separate file with the XML Schema fragment provided below, and import that file with a namespace, as in the simplified examples shown here.

Schema:

```
<?xml version="1.0" encoding="UTF-8"?>
<xs:schema xmlns:xs="http://www.w3.org/2001/XMLSchema"

ST.36 XML SCHEMA FRAGMENTS

6. The XML Schema fragments for each of the content models shown above are listed here and provided in a downloadable file from the WIPO web site at the following URL:
<http://www.wipo.int/standards/XMLSchema/trademarks/appendixE>. You can use this file as-is, or create a subset for just those elements you intend to import.
